* Please be aware that as part of the National Football League's agreement with NBC to televise Sunday Night Football, the NFL has implemented a flexible schedule for Sunday start times for the final eight weeks of the season.

This will allow the NFL to bring more attractive match-ups to a national audience late in the season. If any of the 49ers games are moved from the original start time, fans will be notified 12 days prior to the date of the game with the exception of a Week 17 game, where the notification will be six days to ensure a Sunday Night game with playoff implications. Starting time changes will be publicized on 49ers.com and through the local print, electronic and internet media

DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK
JOHN YORK CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 36 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team winning the Stanley Cup. She is one of only 12 women to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 14 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's International Committee. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the boarders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. Under John's direction, the League has expanded its presence abroad with regular season games the past two years at Wembley Stadium in London, England. During the 2010 season, the 49ers hosted the Denver Broncos in London, England. John also sits on the League's Audit and Business Ventures Committees, which help to ensure the NFL's standing as the preeminent brand in all of professional sports.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in reaching out to former players and coaches to help celebrate six monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports. Under their guidance, the team enhanced its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. As part of the event, the former players are recognized on the field during a half-time celebration at Candlestick Park, where so many of them made their mark on history. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana, Steve Young and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round. From the team's annual Winter Fundraiser in Lake Tahoe charity event each winter, to its Draft Day celebration in Santa Clara each spring, to Family Day at Candlestick Park each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the fans and the players and coaches, Denise and John have opened a portion of the team's training camp to the public since 2005, giving more than 100,000 49ers fans the opportunity to meet the team before the first snap of the football season.

On game days, they have spearheaded the effort to create a great atmosphere for fans by making significant enhancements to Candlestick Park, from the creation of the Alumni Tailgate Party and Faithful City, to improvements inside the stadium such as new flat screen TVs, new escalators and remodeled restrooms.

They've also provided new opportunities for fans to participate in the excitement of 49ers football by giving local musicians the opportunity to sing the national anthem in front of 68,000 fans at the 'Stick, and providing opportunities to local talent to participate in half-time events on the field.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

Last year, 49ers players, coaches, staff and alumni participated in community events throughout the Bay Area as part of the team's award-winning RESPECT community outreach program. The 49ers Foundation has also grown tremendously, from raising and donating $200,000 per year to Bay Area non-profit organizations, to a record $1.7 million in 2008, bringing the total to more than $10 million over the last eight years.

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple was recently honored as City Year's Service Leadership Award recipient for their work in the Bay Area community. In 2008, the couple were honored with the 2008 Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, a non-profit organization dedicated to fighting bias and racism in the South Bay Area. In 2005, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John was recently honored with Loyola University's Strich Medal - the highest honor awarded by the school - for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. In 2008, Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's 2008 Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They were also inducted into the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Boardman, Ohio, in 2007 for generously giving their time and resources to the Mahoning Valley community.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as President and CEO of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an entrepreneur in the high-tech industry in Silicon Valley, and twins Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in oenology in the Napa Valley.

JED YORK

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As President & Chief Executive Officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York overseas all aspects of the organization. York is in his third year in his current position and has made bold decisions to return the team to its winning tradition and ultimate return to the Super Bowl. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

York is spearheading the team's plans for a new state of the art stadium for 49ers fans. This year, the plans made significant steps forward with a certification of the Environmental Impact Report and the overwhelming victory of Measure J which authorizes the plans to move forward with a new stadium in Santa Clara, CA. The team's goal is to open the new stadium in the 2014 season where it will quickly be known as the world's premium sports and entertainment venue in the world.

York has taken every step possible to improve the team's performance on the field. York directed the organization to undertake a major renovation of the 49ers practice facility in Santa Clara to significantly enhance the team's weight room, locker room, and team meeting rooms in order to give the players the tools they need to be successful. York also has added the 49ers Café, a 3,700 square foot onsite cafeteria where a private chef prepares dietary cuisine to help the players maximize their potential. Likewise, he bolstered the team's football affairs and alumni outreach departments, led by former 49ers linebacker and four-time Super Bowl champion Keena Turner, to help the players better themselves off the field and prepare for life after football.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. Perhaps his most popular move as President was to direct the organization to create new uniforms for the 49ers that connect the team's future aspirations to its championship glory years of the 1980s and 1990s. He also created a new ticket sales and services department to give each season ticket holder a personal representative and point of contact within the organization. To give fans a forum to interact directly with the team's leaders, he instituted a public "State of the Franchise" meeting for season ticket holders, where they have an opportunity to listen to the team's plans for the future and ask questions of the 49ers management team.

Under York's leadership, the team instituted a new 49ers hall of fame to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, upon its creation. York shortly thereafter announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr.D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School, where he was captain of the baseball team as well student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA and Tipping Point Community.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

TRENT BAALKE

GENERAL MANAGER

Trent Baalke enters his seventh season with the 49ers and his 14th in the National Football League. Named the 49ers General Manager on January 4, 2011, Baalke oversees all facets of football operations.

Prior to being named 49ers GM, Baalke served as Vice President of Player Personnel for the team in 2010, as he oversaw all aspects of player personnel, including the team's draft process. For the first time in his career, he commanded a NFL team's draft room, and netted eight selections that went on to make the team's opening-day roster. The class included first rounders T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati, who both went on to start every game of their rookie year. That same offseason, Baalke was also instrumental in extending the contracts of All-Pro LB Patrick Willis and Pro Bowl TE Vernon Davis.

From 2008-09, Baalke served as the 49ers Director of Player Personnel, overseeing both the college and pro personnel departments. He first joined the franchise immediately following the 2005 NFL Draft as the team's Western Region Scout, a position he held through 2007.

Baalke spent four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, serving as the College Scouting Coordinator in his final season. From 2001 to 2003, he served as Washington's National Scout and traveled throughout the country in search of rising talent. Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

From 1990 to 1995, Baalke held the position of defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State. In that role, he helped promote players such as former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts. Baalke then spent time as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, ND, before moving on to the Jets. Baalke began his coaching career as a graduate assistant defensive line coach at North Dakota State, in 1989. The team finished with a 14-0 record and a Division II National Championship.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State.

Baalke played outside linebacker and was a two-time All-Northern Sun Conference and an All-Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have twodaughters, Katy and Cassie.

TOM GAMBLE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Tom Gamble is in his 24th NFL season and his seventh year with the 49ers. On February 4, 2011, Gamble was promoted to Director of Player Personnel after having served as the Director of Pro Personnel for the previous seven years in San Francisco.

Gamble's extensive NFL resume includes work in both college and pro scouting, contract negotiations, and a stint in the coaching ranks.

While working closely with General Manager Trent Baalke, Gamble oversees both the college and pro personnel efforts. In his previous role, Gamble monitored every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining continuous depth of personnel on the 49ers roster. In 2010, Gamble had been assigned additional responsibilities in collegiate scouting in order to maximize the use of his extensive experience in talent evaluation.

During his time in the NFL, Gamble has helped build nine playoff teams – five with Indianapolis and four with Philadelphia. Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as a college scout for the Colts from 1998 to 2004 under veteran NFL executive Bill Polian.

Gamble originally entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as a college scouting administrator, area scout, contract negotiator, and later served as the director of pro scouting.

From 1995 to 1996, Gamble served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets. He then worked as a part-time college scout for the Carolina Panthers before serving as a pro scout for the Baltimore Ravens during the 1997 season.

Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point University in 1987 and an M.S. from Rowan University in 1988. He grew up in a football family, where his father, Harry, served as the head coach at both the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. Harry was also formerly the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gamble and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Matthew.

JOEL PATTEN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Joel Patten is in his second year with the 49ers as the Director of College Scouting. He joined San Francisco with 14 years of NFL scouting experience and more than a decade of professional playing experience. In his role, Patten oversees the college scouting staff and the daily operations of the department.

In 2009, Patten served as a regional scout for the St. Louis Rams. Prior to joining the Rams, he was a national scout for the Washington Redskins from 2004-08, where he worked alongside 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel Baalke, in 2004. Patten also spent time as a regional scout for the Houston Texans (2000-03) and the Redskins (1996-99).

Patten played eight seasons in the NFL and three in USFL as an offensive tackle. Having originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Cleveland Browns in 1980, he played in 56 career games for the Browns (1980-82), Colts (1987-88), Chargers (1989-90) and Los Angeles Raiders (1991-92). He also played for the Washington Federals (1983-84) and the Orlando Renegades (1985) of the USFL.

A 1980 graduate of Duke University, Patten and his wife, Betsy, live in Chantilly, VA, and have three children - Jake, Christina and Kimberly.

JEFF FERGUSON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS & SPORTS MEDICINE

Jeff Ferguson is in his sixth year with the 49ers and his first as Director of Football Operations and Sports Medicine. Having served as the team's Head Athletic Trainer since 2006, Ferguson added the responsibilities of overseeing the 49ers strength and conditioning, team logistics, equipment and video operations departments during the 2011 offseason.

For the last five seasons, Ferguson has overseen the team's rehabilitation procedures, injury records, training room and daily athletic training duties. He joined the 49ers after serving as the manager of athletic team development with BREG, an orthopedic company based out of Vista, CA. From June of 2005 until March of 2006 Ferguson specialized in sports medicine bracing for BREG.

Prior to his move to the West coast, Ferguson spent eight years in several capacities at Kansas State University, though he continued to serve as the athletic trainer for the Kansas State football team throughout his time in Manhattan. JIM HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

3rd NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

Attack each day with an enthusiasm unknown to mankind. That is the mantra that Jim Harbaugh lives, coaches and played by … one that was instilled in him by his father, Jack, at a very young age. That enthusiasm permeated the San Francisco 49ers organization immediately upon his hiring as the 18th Head Coach in the storied history of the proud franchise.

Widely regarded as one of the finest up-and-coming coaches in football, Harbaugh's pedigree is one littered with the names of some truly great football minds. That list starts with his father, Jack, a veteran of 43 seasons in the coaching ranks, and ends with his brother, John, the current head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. The middle of that list contains the likes of Bill Walsh, Bo Schembechler and Lindy Infante, all men he credits with contributing to his coaching repertoire.

A 15-year NFL veteran quarterback, Harbaugh brings 17 years of coaching experience to San Francisco, which includes spending the last seven years as a head coach (58-27) in the collegiate ranks. He joins the 49ers after an impressive four-year stint as the head coach at Stanford University, where he guided the Cardinal football program to the biggest turnaround in school history over a four year span.

Among Harbaugh's many accomplishments while at Stanford was the orchestration of two of the highest scoring teams in school history, three of the top four rushing teams in program history and back-to-back bowl appearances for the first time since 1995 and '96. He also coached back-to-back Heisman Trophy finalists in running back Toby Gerhart and quarterback Andrew Luck.

As Stanford's head coach, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to a 29-21 overall record, including a 20-6 record over the past two seasons. It was in stark contrast to the program he inherited in 2007, which had compiled a 16-40 record in the previous five seasons, including a 1-11 mark in 2006. After leading the Cardinal to records of 4-8 and 5-7 in his first two seasons, Harbaugh guided Stanford to an 8-5 overall mark and an appearance in the Sun Bowl in 2009, followed by a historic 12-1 season and an Orange Bowl win, in 2010.

Harbaugh fielded one of the greatest teams in Stanford football history in 2010, as the Cardinal posted a school record of 12 wins on the season, suffering its only setback to the Pac-10 champion Oregon Ducks. The Cardinal proceeded to win its final eight games of the season, which was capitalized by a 40-12 victory over Virginia Tech in the first Bowl Championship Series bowl appearance in school history.

The Cardinal offense set a school record with 524 points on the season, having scored 30-or-more points in all but one game, to finish the season ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3) and 14th nationally in total yards per game (472.5). Harbaugh played an instrumental role in developing Luck, who completed 70% of his passes for 3,338 yards and 32 touchdowns. Stanford's ground game also proved productive as the team ranked 17th in the nation in rushing yards per game (213.8).

The team's defensive unit was just as impressive, ranking 10th nationally in scoring defense (17.4). The Cardinal posted three shutouts on the year and finished ranked in the top-25 nationally in five defensive categories.

In 2009, Harbaugh was able to effectively transform the Cardinal into one of the most productive offensive units in the nation, as the team finished the season ranked 19th in total offense (427.6 yards per game), while setting single season records for total yards (5,559) and rushing yards (2,837). The year culminated in a trip to the Sun Bowl, a 31-27 loss to Oklahoma, marking the program's first bowl appearance since the 2001 season.

Harbaugh came to Stanford from the University of San Diego, where he guided the Toreros to an impressive three year overall record of 29-6 (.829), including back-to-back 11-1 seasons that netted a pair of Division I-AA Mid Major national titles in 2005 and 2006.

Prior to joining the University of San Diego, Harbaugh spent two seasons (2002-03) as an offensive assistant with the Oakland Raiders. In his first season, the Raiders posted an 11-5 regular season record, won the AFC Western Division title and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII.

Harbaugh laid the groundwork for his coaching career while he was still competing as a player in the NFL, serving as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach at Western Kentucky, where he worked with his father and Hilltoppers head coach Jack Harbaugh, from 1994-2001. Jack is a 43-veteran of the coaching ranks who led his Hilltoppers team to a Division I-AA National Championship in 2002.

As a first round draft pick by the Chicago Bears in 1987, Harbaugh played for five teams over 15 seasons, including the Chicago Bears (1987-93), Indianapolis Colts (1994-97), Baltimore Ravens (1998), San Diego Chargers (1999-2000) and Carolina Panthers (2001). He racked up 26,288 passing yards to go along with 129 touchdown passes, while completing 2,305-of-3,918 passes in 177 career games (140 starts). Harbaugh ranks in the NFL's top-50 in two career passing categories - completions (41st) and pass attempts (45th).

Success is no stranger to Harbaugh. A product of nearby Palo Alto High School, he enjoyed a storied career at the University of Michigan, where he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and helped lead the Wolverines to two bowl appearances, garnering Big Ten Player of the Year honors.

Jim and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine. Jim also has three children, Jay, James Jr. and Grace. He is the son of Jack and Jackie, the brother of Baltimore Ravens head coach, John Harbaugh, and the brother in-law of Indiana University Men's Basketball head coach, Tom Crean.

BRAD SEELY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

23rd NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

Considered one of the most successful special teams coaches in NFL history, Brad Seely is in his first year with the 49ers after being hired as assistant head coach/special teams coordinator on January 25, 2011.

Seely brings 22 years of NFL special teams coaching experience to the 49ers. Most recently, Seely served as the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns from 2009-10, where he worked with WR/KR Joshua Cribbs, who earned Pro Bowl selections in each of the last two seasons. Seely's special teams unit led the NFL in kickoff coverage, while ranking fifth in the NFL in punt coverage in 2010.

In 2009, Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year after leading the Browns to a league best special teams ranking according to the formula comprised by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. It marked Seely's fifth top-five finish for his special teams units since 1990.

Prior to joining the Browns, Seely spent 10 seasons as the New England Patriots special teams coach (1999-08), where he was part of three Super Bowl championships. Over the span of his tenure in New England, the Patriots led the NFL in kickoff return average (23.5), were fourth in field goal percentage (83.4%) and ranked eighth in punt return average (9.9). In addition, his units registered 11 returns for touchdowns, including eight on kickoffs, a figure that tied for second in the NFL over that 10-year stretch. Seely also helped produced a total of 3 special teams Pro Bowlers (K Adam Vinatieri - 2004, LB Larry Izzo - 2004 and K Stephen Gostkowski - 2008). He also tutored the AFC's leading kickoff returner on two occasions (WR Bethel Johnson – 2003 and RB Kevin Faulk - 2002) and leading punt returner (WR Troy Brown - 2002).

Seely worked with the Carolina Panthers from 1995-98, where he helped coach an expansion team to an NFC Championship Game appearance in just its second season. In 1996 and 1997, Panthers kickoff returner Michael Bates became the first player in 35 years to lead the league in kick return average in consecutive seasons, earning two consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl for his efforts. In 1996, Seely earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors. He also had the league's best kicker, as John Kasay set a then NFL single-season record with 37 field goals. In addition to the success of Bates and Kasay, Carolina also boasted one of the league's top coverage units as the Panthers led the NFL in opponents average punt return (5.4 avg.) and ranked fifth in opponents average kickoff return (20.1 avg.).

Seely began his NFL career in 1989 with the Indianapolis Colts, serving as their special teams/tight ends coach for five years (1989-93). During his time with the Colts, he assisted in the development of two Pro Bowl special teamers, P Rohn Stark and WR Clarence Verdin. In 1992, the Colts had the NFL's top specials teams unit based on rankings by the Dallas Morning News. Seely then coached the Jets' special teams for one year (1994), and in that season, New York ranked fifth in the league in kickoff return defense (19.6 avg.) and sixth in punt return defense (6.8 avg.).

Seely's collegiate coaching career began as an assistant coach at South Dakota State in 1978. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1979, before being named the Rams offensive line coach in 1980. Seely then served as the offensive line coach at Southern Methodist (1981), North Carolina State (1982), University of Pacific (1983) and Oklahoma State (1984-88).

A native of Vinton, IA, Seely earned all-conference honors as an offensive guard at South Dakota State University while majoring in economics and physical education. He and his wife, Patti, have three daughters, Sarah, Hannah and Brynn.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

14th NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

Greg Roman is in his first year with the 49ers after being named the team's offensive coordinator on January 14, 2011.

In what marks his 14th season coaching in the NFL, Roman has been a member of the coaching staffs for the Carolina Panthers (1995-2001), Houston Texans (2002-03) and Baltimore Ravens (2006-07). He most recently spent the previous two seasons on Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford.

Roman joined the Cardinal in 2009 as the running game coordinator, with position responsibilities of tight ends and offensive tackles. In 2010, he kept those responsibilities, but also added the duties of associate coach and assistant head coach of the offense.

During his time at Stanford, the Cardinal posted a 20-6 record, which was the best over a two-year span in the University's history. He mentored two Heisman runner-up candidates in QB Andrew Luck (2010) and RB Toby Gerhart (2009). Over those two seasons, the Cardinal allowed a total of 13 sacks on offense, which marked the fewest over that time span in the nation. Stanford allowed just seven sacks in 2009 and six sacks in 2010, ranking 2nd in the nation both years.

Roman oversaw a Cardinal offense in 2010 that ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3 points/game), 14th in total yards per game (472.5), 17th in rushing yards per game (213.8) and 1st in time of possession (34:34). Under his guidance, Stanford offense produced a school-record 524 points. Roman mentored a tight end trio of Coby Fleener, Konrad Reuland and Zach Ertz, who combined for a total of 833 receiving yards on 65 catches with 13 touchdowns.

A year prior, Roman's sophisticated blocking schemes and knowledge of the running game were major factors in the Cardinal amassing a single-season school record of 2,837 yards on the ground in 2009. At season's end, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors, while Stanford's tight ends combined to catch 38 passes for 557 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Roman served as the assistant offensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that captured the 2006 AFC North Division title with a regular season mark of 13-3. He helped the Ravens improve to 17th in the NFL in total offense and 2nd in fewest sacks allowed with 17, setting a franchise record. Baltimore also led the NFL in time of possession and set team records for completion percentage (62.6%), third down conversions (96), fourth-down percentage (72.7%) and fewest turnovers (23). The offensive line helped quarterback Steve McNair set a team record for pass completion percentage (63.0%) and most passes without an interception (162). In addition, left tackle Jonathan Ogden was voted to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff in Baltimore, Roman enjoyed a four-year coaching stint with the Houston Texans, serving as the team's tight ends (2002-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004-05). As tight ends coach, Roman tutored Billy Miller, who led the Texans with 91 receptions over two seasons. He also guided former 2002 NFL first round draft pick David Carr, who had his best season under Roman in 2004 when he passed for 3,531 yards and an 83.1 quarterback rating.

Roman launched his coaching career with the Carolina Panthers in 1995, the team's inaugural season in the NFL, when he was named the strength and conditioning assistant/defensive quality control coach, while also working with the defensive backs and the linebackers. In 1996, the Panthers set a NFL record for most wins by an expansion team, as Carolina won the NFC West crown and advanced to the NFC Championship game. He then moved to the offensive side of the ball as Carolina's offensive quality control coach for two seasons (1997-98) before assuming the role of offensive assistant for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. As the team's offensive assistant, he worked with both the run-and-pass game strategy and implementation, helping the Panthers finish 2nd in the NFL in passing offense and 5th in yards per rush. Roman worked as the team's assistant offensive line coach in his final season with the Panthers in 2001.

A three-year letter-winner and two-year starting defensive lineman at John Carroll University from 1990-93, Roman earned All-Ohio Conference honorable mention honors following his senior season. He also helped the Blue Streaks capture a share of the OAC championship.

During his junior year at John Carroll, Roman participated in Project H.O.P.E. (Helping Others Through Physical Education) which aids the developmentally disabled in northeast Ohio.

A native of Ventnor, N.J. and a graduate of Holy Spirit High School, Greg and his wife, Dana, have three children, Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

VIC FANGIO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

25th NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

With an extensive coaching background that spans over two decades, Vic Fangio is in his first season as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers.

Fangio, enters his 25th season coaching in the NFL, which includes 11 years of experience as a defensive coordinator for three NFL teams - Carolina (1995-98), Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001) and Houston Texans (2002-05). As a defensive coordinator, Fangio has directed defensive units that have led the NFL or ranked among the top three teams in seven or more major statistical categories.

Fangio most recently served a one year stint as the defensive coordinator for Stanford in 2010, where he led one of the nation's top defenses. He was unanimously selected as college football's Defensive Coordinator of the Year by three different media entities.

The Cardinal defense made significant strides under Fangio's guidance, improving from a 90th ranked unit nationally in 2009 to a defense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in six major defensive categories in 2010. Stanford finished the year ranked 10th in scoring defense (17.4 points/game), 11th in sacks (36), 16th in passing defensive efficiency (112.79), 19th in rushing defense (120.8 yards/game), t-19th in interceptions (18) and 21st in total defense (322.8 yards/game). Within the Pac-10 Conference, the Cardinal improved from 8th to 1st in both scoring defense and sacks, while moving from 9th to 2nd in takeaways and yards allowed. In addition, Stanford posted three Pac-10 shutouts on the year; marking the first time ever the Cardinal had held opponents scoreless in three contests in a single season.

Prior to joining Stanford, Fangio served on the Baltimore Ravens coaching staff from 2006-09 as a special assistant to the head coach and linebackers coach. In his four seasons with Baltimore, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense in 2006, ranked second in 2008 and third in 2009.

Fangio spent the previous four seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Houston Texans (2002-05). His 2002 defense ranked eighth in the AFC overall and fourth in the conference in pass defense. The Texans scored three defensive touchdowns against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in Week 14 en route to a 24-6 victory.

In 2004, the Texans set a team record and ranked fifth in the NFL with 22 interceptions, five of which were returned for touchdowns. Houston did not allow a touchdown for 13 straight quarters from Week 13 to 16, posting the longest stretch by any team in the league that season.

Fangio served as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts from 1999-2001. The Colts posted a 13-3 record in Fangio's first season after going just 6-26 the previous two years. Indianapolis won its first division title in 15 years, while the Colts defense improved from last to 15th under his guidance. The 2000 Colt defense tallied 42 sacks and made strides in all other statistical categories.

In 1995, Fangio was named defensive coordinator of the expansion Carolina Panthers under head coach Dom Capers. The Panthers tied for seventh in total defense and ranked sixth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing defense, fifth in takeaways and second in defensive passer rating in its inaugural season.

In 1996, the Panthers won the NFC West title and reached the NFC Championship game in just their second year of existence. The Panther defense allowed just 218 points on the year, ranking second in the NFL. Carolina also yielded just five touchdowns and 56 points after halftime for the entire season, breaking an NFL record set by the 1985 Chicago Bears that still stands today. The Panthers defense also led the NFL in sacks and 3rd down defense. Fangio's defense featured three All-Pro linebackers in Lamar Lathon, Sam Mills and Kevin Greene.

Fangio spent nine seasons as the linebackers coach of the New Orleans Saints, starting in 1986. In his second year, the Saints advanced to the playoffs for the first time in franchise history and came back the following year to finish with a 10-6 record. Fangio coached the vaunted "Dome Patrol," which included All-Pro linebackers Rickey Jackson, Pat Swilling, Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson. The group was the only linebacking unit from one team voted to the Pro Bowl on the first ballot. That group was later voted the best linebacking unit in NFL history by NFL Network.

After attending East Stroudsburg University, Fangio began his coaching career in 1979 as the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, and was later promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980. He spent 1982 as the defensive coordinator at Milford (CT.) Academy before landing his first collegiate coaching position at the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1983.

Following a one-year stay in Chapel Hill, Fangio spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons as a defensive assistant with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the team to back-to-back league titles.

Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993. Vic has one son, Christian, and one daughter, Cassie.

With an extensive collegiate coaching background that spans two decades, Tim Drevno is in his first NFL season as the 49ers offensive line coach. In his role, he works alongside fellow offensive line coach, Mike Solari.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Drevno served as a member of Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford from 2007-10. Over the course of his final two seasons with the Cardinal, Drevno coached a Stanford offensive line that allowed just 13 sacks during that span, ranking 2nd in the nation in both 2009 (7) and 2010 (6). In addition, the Cardinal offensive line led the way for a ground game that set a school record with 2,837 rushing yards (11th nationally – 218.2 yards/game) in 2009, followed by 2,779 yards in 2010.

Drevno mentored center Chase Beeler, who earned first-team All-American AFCA, AP and Sporting News, and second-team Walter Camp All-America in 2010. A year prior, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors following the 2009 season. Prior to taking over the Cardinal offensive line in 2009, Drevno served as tight ends coach from 2007-08.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Drevno was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of San Diego (2003-06). The Toreros won back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA Mid-Major national titles and Pioneer League championships in 2005 and 2006. Under his direction as offensive coordinator, the Toreros led the nation in total offense twice, finished 3rd once and 9th on the other occasion.

The 2006 San Diego squad that finished 11-1 overall led all NCAA Division I-AA teams in passing offense (293.3 yards/game), total offense (494.25 yards/game) and scoring offense (42.83 points/game). Quarterback Josh Johnson was one of four offensive All-Americans on the team and led all NCAA Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing yards (3,320), passing efficiency (169.0), touchdown passes (34), and total offense (336.7 ypg). He also posted 721 yards and 11 touchdowns rushing and one touchdown receiving. Johnson went on to be selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL draft in 2008.

San Diego set numerous offensive school records in 2005, including points per game (42.6) and total offense (485.2 yards/game). In 2004, the Torero offense averaged 432.4 yards of total offense per game to rank 9th in the nation. The Toreros were also 11th in scoring offense (36.1 points/game) and 12th in passing offense (275.4 yards/game). Drevno directed USD's West Coast offense to 483.3 yards per game to lead the nation and a Pioneer Football League best 39.9 points per game in 2003, when the squad finished 8-2 and was co-champs of the Pioneer Football League's North Division.

Drevno was the offensive line coach at Idaho for three seasons (2000-02) prior to joining the USD staff. The Vandal offense ranked 6th in the nation in 2001 and 8th in 2000. He coached three NFL players while at Idaho, including Jake Scott, Rick Demulling and Patrick Venzke.

Prior to his tenure at Idaho, Drevno's previous coaching stops included San Jose State (offensive line - 1999), UNLV (running backs - 1998) and Montana State (tight ends - 1993-95; running backs 1996-97).

Drevno began his collegiate playing career at El Camino College, where he helped lead his club to a national title in 1987 and earned All-Mission League honors the following season. He then went on to start on the Cal State Fullerton offensive line for two seasons. Drevno was an all-league player at South Torrance High School.

Drevno earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State-Fullerton in 1992. Tim and his wife Shannon are the parents of three children, McKenna, Zachary and Baylee.

LINEBACKERS

1st NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

With over 30 years of coaching experience in the collegiate ranks, Jim Leavitt is in his first season as the linebackers coach for the 49ers after being hired on January 19, 2011.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Leavitt was the head coach at the University of South Florida, a position he held since the program's inception in 1995. In 13 seasons, he led the Bulls to a 95-57 record.

The program began play in 1997 at the division I-AA level and immediate success propelled the Bulls to a national ranking for 24 consecutive weeks. In 2001, South Florida became a Division I-A independent before moving to Conference USA, in 2003. Leavitt's continued success helped South Florida move into the Big East prior to the 2005 season. That year, Leavitt led the Bulls to their first ever Bowl appearance.

Since becoming a member of the Big East Conference in 2005, Leavitt led the Bulls to a 40-24 record, including five consecutive Bowl appearances, posting a 3-2 record in those games. South Florida's ascension into the top 25 from entry into I-A/FCS was the fastest in NCAA history, surpassing Boise State's rise by a mere seven weeks. The Bulls achieved another record on September 30, 2007, when they became the fastest program of the modern era to reach the top 10, landing at No. 6 in the AP Poll and No. 9 in the Coaches' Poll. On October 14, 2007, South Florida received its first ever BCS ranking as the No. 2 team in the nation behind only the Ohio State Buckeyes. That week, the team was also ranked No. 2 in the AP Poll and No. 3 in both the Coaches' and the Harris Interactive Poll.

Prior to becoming the head coach at South Florida, Leavitt worked under legendary coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1990-95. Leavitt served as the linebackers coach for two seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator. He was instrumental in building a Wildcat defense that improved from 93rd in the nation in 1993 to the number one ranked unit in 1995.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri (1978-79). Leavitt followed that by serving as the defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque (IA) from 1980-81. He then spent five seasons at Morning Side College (IA), working as the special teams coordinator for one year before being named the defensive coordinator in 1983.

In 1988, Leavitt turned his attention towards obtaining his Ph.D in psychology from the University of Iowa, an endeavor he had been pursing sporadically since 1982. By 1989, Leavitt simply needed to complete his dissertation when Iowa head coach Hayden Fry offered him a graduate position. With the coaching bug in his blood, Leavitt jumped at the opportunity and was able to fast track his coaching career in I-A football. Following the '89 season, Leavitt was named to Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State.

A native of Harlingen, TX, Leavitt is married to his wife, Jody, and the couple has a daughter, Sofia. Leavitt also has another daughter, Deandra.

9th NFL Season | 1st with 49ers

John Morton is in his first year with the 49ers after being named the team's wide receivers coach on January 20, 2011.

Morton spent the previous four years at the University of Southern California as the school's wide receivers coach. He also held the position of the Trojans passing game coordinator in 2007-08 and 2010, while serving as the school's offensive coordinator in 2009. Under Morton's tutelage, WR Damian Williams earned All-Pac-10 first team honors and, along with WR Patrick Turner, was a third round draft pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining USC, Morton served at the passing game coordinator/offensive assistant with the New Orleans Saints in 2006, helping the Saints earn a berth in the NFC Championship game that season.

From 1997-2004, Morton worked for the Oakland Raiders in several capacities and served alongside Harbaugh for two years (2002-03). He began in the Raiders personnel department and then worked as an offensive assistant, coaching the wide receivers for two years (1998-99). Morton then became the offensive quality control coach in 2000 and again worked with the wide receivers until 2001. He was then elevated to senior offensive assistant/wide receivers coach in 2002, where he coached Jerry Rice, who earned Pro Bowl honors, and Tim Brown on a team that earned a trip to the Super Bowl. Morton was later named the team's tight ends coach in 2004.

Morton originally signed with Oakland as an undrafted rookie wide receiver in 1993, and spent part of the next two seasons (1993-94) on the Raiders practice squad. He also spent time with Green Bay in 1993 and was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995. Morton returned to training camp with the Raiders again in 1996. He played for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts in 1995 and 1996, and later with the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy in the spring of 1997.

Morton played at Western Michigan for two seasons (1991-92), where he finished 10th on the school's all-time receiving list (78 receptions) and eighth in receiving yards (1,278), earning All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior, in 1992. He later received a bachelor's degree in general studies from Western Michigan in 1997. Morton came to Western Michigan after two years (1989-90) at Grand Rapids (MI) Community College, where he received his associate's degree in 1990.

Morton and his wife, Shannon, have two daughters, Tierney Rose and Sage Marie.

TOM RATHMAN

RUNNING BACKS

14th NFL Season | 9th with 49ers

Tom Rathman rejoined the 49ers as the team's running backs coach in 2009 after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint in San Francisco, having also coached the running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under Rathman's tutelage, RB Frank Gore has solidified his reputation as one of the premier backs in the league. Gore was having one of the best seasons of his career in 2010 before being placed on Injured Reserve with a hip injury. Despite playing in only 11 games, he earned Pro Bowl recognition as an alternate at season's end. At the time of his injury, Gore ranked fifth in the NFC in rushing yards (853) and second in yards from scrimmage (1,305).

A year prior, Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006-09), as the fifth year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career-high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the honorary game. He also was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (2 & 14).

While with the Raiders, Rathman oversaw a rushing attack that ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking 6th (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach for the Detroit Lions from 2003 to 2005. In 2004, Rathman tutored RB Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since RB Barry Sanders in 1989.

During Rathman's first coaching stint with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams in five of the six seasons under his guidance, including top-ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a 2nd ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding RB Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986-94) as a fullback. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 total touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, Nebraska native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

MIKE SOLARI

OFFENSIVE LINE

25th NFL Season | 7th with 49ers

Mike Solari rejoined the 49ers in 2010 as the team's offensive line coach after having previously served as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for San Francisco from 1992-96 under legendary coach Bobb McKittrick. In his role, Solari works closely with offensive line coach Tim Drevno.

In 2010, Solari relied on his extensive experience as he helped shuffle an offensive line that was plagued by injury, while also integrating first round draft picks T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati into the starting lineup. After a season-ending injury to starting center Eric Heitmann in training camp, Solari was able to quickly find a replacement in David Baas, who hadn't started a game at center since college. Baas went on to start all 16 games for the 49ers and earned the coveted Bobb McKittrick Award as voted upon by his teammates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Solari spent two seasons (2008-09) as the offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Under his direction, tackle Walter Jones was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Following his initial stint with the 49ers, Solari spent nine seasons as the offensive line coach for Kansas City (1997-2005). With Solari directing the Kansas City offensive line, the team averaged 126.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth in the NFL during that time span.

Solari's line produced a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in 2004 and 2005, in guards Will Shields and Brian Waters, as well as tackle Willie Roaf. Kansas City became the first club to accomplish that feat since Dallas from 1993-96. As a result of his offensive line's dominance, the Chiefs offense led the league in total offense in 2004 (franchise-record 418.4 ypg) and 2005 (387.0 ypg).

The Daly City, CA, native was later promoted by the Chiefs to offensive coordinator in 2006. During his 11-year tenure in Kansas City, the team finished in the top 10 in rushing on seven occasions, in the top five four times, and ranked 6th in the NFL in total offense (359.2 yards per game) over that span. Solari was one of just six assistant coaches in team history to record more than a decade of service with the franchise.

While with the 49ers from 1992 to 1996, Solari was largely responsible for the development of tight end Brent Jones, who made four Pro Bowl appearances, and was instrumental in the team's successful Super Bowl XXIX season.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, where he was the assistant offensive line/special teams coach for two seasons. He moved on to the Phoenix Cardinals to work with Gene Stallings for one season, before joining him at the University of Alabama (1990-91).

In 1976, Solari's coaching career began at Mission Bay (CA) High School, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College (1978) and U.S. International (1979). The following year, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. He spent additional time on the collegiate level at Cincinnati (1981-82) and Kansas (1983-85), and later served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh (1986).

A former offensive lineman at San Diego State, Solari was a teammate of former Chiefs head coach and current ESPN analyst Herm Edwards, as well as Carolina Panthers head coach John Fox.

Solari is married to wife, Patti, and the couple has three children, Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE

5th NFL Season | 5th with 49ers

Jim Tomsula is in his fifth season with the 49ers as the team's defensive line coach, after having also served as San Francisco's interim head coach for the final game of the 2010 season.

Since Tomsula's arrival, the 49ers run defense and pass rush have steadily improved. During his four seasons with the team, the defensive line has allowed a mere 3.7 yards per carry, to rank 4th in the NFL during that span. In terms of yards per carry allowed, San Francisco's defense ranked 5th (3.8) in 2007, 8th (3.8) in 2008, 3rd (3.6) in 2009 and 2nd (3.5) in 2010, a notable improvement from ranking 16th (4.1) in 2006 prior to Tomsula's arrival.

In 2010, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL in run defense, allowing just 1,547 rushing yards (96.7 ypg), marking the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yards). DT Justin Smith was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year after recording 8.5 sacks, the most since his rookie season.

A year prior, the 49ers ranked 6th (97.0 ypg) in the NFL against the run, as Smith finished the year among the team leaders in tackles (90), while also posting 6.0 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 FRs. For his efforts, he appeared in the 2010 Pro Bowl as an alternate.

Also charged with the development of the team's pass rush, Tomsula has helped the 49ers increase their sack totals from 65 over his first two seasons to 80 the past two years. After ranking tied for 3rd in 2009 with 44 sacks, the 49ers posted 36 in 2010 for a two-year total that ranked 7th in the NFL over that span.

The epitome of a journeyman, Tomsula has coached 28 seasons of football at the high school, college and professional levels since the Fall of 1989. During that span he spent one entire year out of football (1996) and has held a multitude of coaching titles including - head coach, assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, special teams coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coach.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLE history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFLE against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLE in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff, as coaching in the NFLE was not a year-round post. While at Catawba, he was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater after a knee injury ended his playing career. He went on to coach the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1990.

Interestingly, Tomsula spent two seasons out of football. He served as a sales rep for Thera-Kinetics, a medical equipment company, in 1991, until he landed a job as an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC, (1992-95). In order to make ends meet in Charleston, Tomsula held many odd jobs such as delivering newspapers for The Post and Courier, serving as a night janitor at an insurance agency, and cutting firewood. After his stint at Charleston Southern, he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh, PA, where he cleaned the floors at a department store until landing a job as a sales rep at Cisco Foods. Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997, as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba. With no income from his coaching passion, he again picked up a part-time job as an entry-way carpeting salesman and even lived out of his car at times.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son Bear.

In addition, KFK helps fund the staffing at the The Little Rock Resource Center at CHOP, which helps the blind and visually impaired. "I have been visiting CHOP once a week since my rookie season," said Akers. "Over the years, I have seen so many families struggling to care for their sick children to help them in any way I can." 75 ALEX BOONE
| TACKLE

6-7 | 328 | OHIO ST. | 2ND YEAR | BORN 5.4.87 | LAKEWOOD, OH
ACQUIRED FA IN '09 | ST. EDWARD HS, CLEVELAND, OH

Alex Boone reached a significant milestone in his career when he took the field in the team's season-finale against the Arizona Cardinals in 2010. The game marked his first regular season action as a pro, which was an achievement many would have felt far-fetched two years ago. Boone was originally signed as a rookie free agent by the 49ers in 2009 and spent his entire rookie season on the team's practice squad. When Boone reported to mini-camp the following year, he had lost 40 pounds of fat and replaced it with 25 pounds of lean muscle. He competed at both right and left tackle, and eventually proved his worth as he earned a spot on the 53-man roster.

// TRANSACTIONS

Signed as a rookie free agent by SF on 4/30/09…Waived by SF on 9/3/09…Signed to the practice squad by SF on 9/6/09…Signed by SF to reserve/future contract on 1/6/10.

// GOLDMINE

- During the 2009 offseason, Alex returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O-lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex is now in the best shape of his life, dropping 40 pounds before putting 25 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Alex said. "He has helped me with my footwork, my initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."
- Alex was featured in NFL.com's "On The Fringe" series in 2010, which highlighted lesser-known players as they battled for roster spots.

// 2010

- Was inactive Weeks 1-16.
- Made his NFL debut vs. Arz. (1/2/11), entering the game at left tackle in the second half.

// 2009

- Spent the entire season on the 49ers practice squad.

// COLLEGE

A two-time All-Big Ten selection during his four-year career at Ohio State, played in 46 games (35 starts). Started 22 games at LT for the Buckeyes, earning All-America honors as a senior.

// PERSONAL

- A two-time All-Ohio selection, was a three-year starter at St. Edward (OH) HS. Also competed in shot put and discus and played basketball for one year.
- His uncle, Ed, played football at Penn State.
- Enjoys hunting and playing golf.

NaVORRO BOWMAN

53

| LINEBACKER

6-0 | 242 | PENN ST. | 2ND YEAR | BORN 5.28.88 | DISTRICT HEIGHTS, MD
ACQUIRED D-3 IN '10 | SUITLAND HS, FORESTVILLE, MD

Talent, hustle, toughness and determination are all attributes 49ers linebacker NaVorro Bowman displayed during his rookie season with the 49ers. A third round draft pick by San Francisco in 2010, Bowman showcased his play-making abilities throughout the year, seeing action in 16 games with one start. He provided 49ers fans a glimpse of the future in his lone start as he led the team with 15 tackles in the season finale against Arizona. Bowman made his biggest impact on special teams as a rookie, ranking third in the NFL with 20 special teams stops according to NFL game books. Growing up in a crime and drug-infested neighborhood, Bowman relied on sports and a strong support system to keep him pointed in the right direction.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 3rd-round (91st overall) draft choice by SF in 2010.

// GOLDMINE

- NaVorro was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high crime area. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became his outlet and a means for not giving into the streets and drugs. "My parents had been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach - he really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."
- NaVorro earned his degree in criminal law and justice, and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from that area will help others listen to him and understand that there are other ways to live life than what they currently know. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field - to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head from my neighborhood."
- Two important and influential people in NaVorro's life recently and abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart, while his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game in 2009. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. It's made me stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."

// 2010

- Ranked 3rd in the NFL with 20 special teams tackles according to NFL game books.
- Saw action at ILB, replacing an injured LB Takeo Spikes (knee contusion) vs. NO (9/20), and posted 6 tackles.
- In his first career start in place of LB Patrick Willis (hand), led the team with a career-high 15 tackles vs. Arz. (1/2/11).

2007: Thomas Herrion Award

// GOLDMINE

- In 2007, Tarell was the recipient of the Thomas Herrion Award, honoring the rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a postive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- It's not only Tarell's work ethic that got him to where he is today, but also his ability to overcome a variety of challenges throughout his young life. At the age of 9, Tarell's mother was killed as she was getting into her car to go to work early one morning. Following his mother's death, Tarell moved in with his father, Robert, who not only saw football as an escape for his son, but also as an opportunity for him to earn a scholarship and a solid education. Just prior to the NFL Draft, his father died of a heart attack on Valentine's Day. "A day doesn't go by that I don't think about my mother and father. Everything I do nowadays is dedicated to my parents. I know without them, I wouldn't be where I'm now."
- Tarell won the Punt, Pass & Kick Championship at Texas Stadium as a 9-year-old after advancing through the city and regional finals. He was then flown to San Diego for the National Championships, where he placed 3rd.
- When his NFL career is over, Tarell is looking forward to working with kids. "I want to open up a gym and train athletes, train kids. I like to be around kids and I still want to be surrounded by sports. Maybe have a little AAU basketball team and travel around different cities and states."
- Tarell hosted his 3rd Annual Summer Sportsfest in Dallas in June of 2010. The highlights of the weekend included free football and cheerleading camps, in addition to a celebrity basketball game featuring a large group of NFL players. Proceeds raised through the raffle and celebrity basketball game benefitted Tarell's Born Again Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to becoming the nation's foremost full-service, ex-offender program. It provides an opportunity for all ex-offenders who desire a significant change to make a positive transition into a new life. The foundation offers job counseling, educational and vocational training, and personal and family support to all who desire to not be defined by negativity in their past.

  Visit tarellbrown.net for additional information.
- In June 2010, Tarell was recognized for his contributions to his hometown, receiving a proclamation from the city of Mesquite.

NATE BYHAM

82 | TIGHT END

6-4 | 264 | PITTSBURGH | 2ND YEAR | BORN 6.27.88 | FRANKLIN, PA
ACQUIRED D-6B IN '10 | FRANKLIN HS, FRANKLIN, PA

Nate Byham stepped into action immediately as a rookie, playing in 14 games with three starts after being selected in the 6th round of the 2010 NFL Draft. Byham is known primarily for his blocking abilities as both a tight end and fullback, but he's also showcased his reliable hands as a receiver. He caught a pass in four consecutive games to start his rookie campaign. Raised under the watchful eye of his grandfather, Byham's personal background can be described as one of perseverance and resiliency as he overcame a variety of obstacles on his path to the NFL.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of three 6th-round (182nd overall) draft choices by SF in 2010...Placed on Injured Reserve on 9/3/11 (knee).

// GOLDMINE

- Nate was raised by his grandfather, Ron, from the time he was born. Nate's mom became pregnant with him when she was a junior in high school. Although she tried to raise Nate, her battle with drug and alcohol abuse was too difficult. Nate's grandparents intervened and offered to raise him. Tragically, a short time after taking him in, his grandmother passed away, leaving Ron with a baby boy. Nate stayed with his grandfather up until high school when he was able to have his own car. At that point, Nate's grandfather lived 15 minutes outside of Franklin, which was in another school district and they didn't have a football team. "During high school I lived at friends' houses. There were 2-3 families that kind of took me in. I had bedrooms at all of their houses and I lived there and out of my car."
- Nate's grandfather obviously played a huge role in raising him and he continues to be someone he looks up to, but Nate also credits his mother for making him the man he is today. "I saw a lot of things as a child that most grown men haven't seen in their lives. I've seen a lot of eye opening things that made me mature at a young age." By second and third grade, Nate was already taking care of himself and knew what he was going to have to do to get by. "That adversity molded me and helped me become a man."
- Nate had an amazing high school career at Franklin High School and they retired his jersey in 2005. "Coming from a small town like Franklin, I didn't realize the numbers that I was putting up." The only other player to have their jersey retired at Franklin is former NFL quarterback and head coach, Ted Marchibroda.
- When Nate joined the 49ers, he was reunited with his college teammate, LB Scott McKillop. The two often squared off in practices during their days at Pitt. "Scott and I have always been buddies and we always competed against each other in practice. I was going against him in power runs and he would go against me in coverage. Sometimes he would make a nice pass breakup and sometimes I would make a nice catch over him. Whatever the case was, we always had a good competitive relationship."

// 2011

- Suffered a season-ending knee injury during training camp and was placed on Injured Reserve on 9/3.

// 2010

- Caught a pass in four consecutive games to start the season, finishing the year with five catches for 27 yards.
- Made his first career start vs. Oak. (10/17).

// COLLEGE

A three-year starter, saw action in 48 games (36 starts) during his career. A team captain as a senior, earned second-team All-Big East honors after starting 12 games and catching 10 passes for 108 yds. Selected first-team All-Big East as a junior, recording 20 catches for 260 yds. in 12 starts. Started the first 11 games of season as a sophomore, missing season-finale due to a knee injury, and posted 15 catches for 210 yds. and 1 TD. Contributed as a reserve tight end as a true freshman, playing in 11 games (1 start) and posting two catches for 34 yds. with 1 TD.

// PERSONAL

- Attended Franklin (PA) HS, where he helped lead his team to three district playoff berths as a three-year starter, seeing action at both TE and LB. Considered the nation's top TE by Scout.com and was named first-team all-state, all-region, all-district and all-conference after recording 45 catches for 883 yds. and school-record 9 TDs as a senior.
- Had his No. 20 high school jersey retired.
- Was an all-star performer in basketball, helping Franklin win the state AAA championship in 2006.
- Born Nathan Arthur Byham (6/27/88) in Franklin, PA.
- Majored in communications rhetoric and minored in computer science. Plans on getting his masters degree in business after he is finished with his football career.

MICHAEL CRABTREE

15

| WIDE RECEIVER

6-1 | 214 | TEXAS TECH | 3RD YEAR | BORN 9.14.87 | DALLAS, TX
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '09 | CARTER HS, DALLAS, TX

As the 10th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft by San Francisco, Michael Crabtree has showcased his rare combination of size, hands and run-after-the-catch ability during his first two seasons with the 49ers. A reliable receiver, Crabtree has caught a pass in each of his 27 NFL games played, which includes recording at least three receptions in 22 of those contests. He put his natural football ability on display in his rookie season with the 49ers, leading all rookie receivers with 56.8 receiving yards per game despite missing the first five games of the season and all of training camp due to a contract impasse. Crabtree followed up his rookie campaign with career-highs in every receiving category, in 2010. Widely considered one of the most prolific receivers in college football history, Crabtree earned the coveted Biletnikoff Award - given to the nation's best receiver - in each of his two seasons played at Texas Tech.

As a senior, he averaged 20.8 points, 6.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. Michael limited his college options to those that would allow him to play both basketball and football. The two-time All-America and Big 12 selection finished his two-year Texas Tech career with 3,127 rec. yds., breaking the previous team record of 3,069 yds. set by Wes Welker. Became only the 7th player in conference history to gain over 3,000 career yds. Ranked 5th in NCAA history in career rec. avg. (120.3) and 6th in career TD recepts. THE SCOUTING REPORT

"One of the things we really liked about Chris was the physical attributes of the player. And we like the fact that he's played both safety and corner. To me, that's a positive not a negative. That means there's upside to the position he switched to as a senior, but it also gives you versatility. He's competitive. He's got some things he's going to have to learn as a corner. But every corner who comes into this league has to develop." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

76 ANTHONY DAVIS

| TACKLE

6-5 | 323 | RUTGERS | 2ND YEAR | BORN 10.11.89 | PISCATAWAY, NJ
ACQUIRED D-1A IN '10 | PISCATAWAY HS, PISCATAWAY, NJ

Armed with tremendous size, strength, and athleticism, Anthony Davis made an immediate impact at right tackle as a rookie after being selected with the 11th overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft. Davis, along with fellow rookie offensive lineman G Mike Iupati, were two of only 14 NFL rookies to start every game in 2010, and they became just the third set of rookies to start every game on the offensive line since the 16-game schedule was instituted in 1978. Davis diligently worked on his craft throughout his rookie season as he and Iupati spent countless hours watching films in the evenings. As one of the youngest players on the roster, Davis has already set his eyes on becoming the ulitmate pro. "I think what they've learned is that, to be a pro, you have to take the game home with you," offensive line coahc Mike Solari said. "You have to become a student of the game - that's what the great ones do."

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 1st-round (11th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

// GOLDMINE

- Anthony saw first hand the struggles of life while growing up, but that never discouraged him, or the person he leaned on most, his mom. "My mom made it happen, she never played the victim. She always taught me you've got to do what you've got to do."
- Anthony got his first tattoo when he was 15 and has added many more to his arms. "The eye on my hand means wisdom and protection." His favorite tattoo is on the inside of his left forearm, "Wealth is of the heart and the mind, not the wallet." The other ink on his arms range from the Rutgers Scarlet Knight, a dream catcher and a clown in a straight jacket, "I haven't named him yet."

85 VERNON DAVIS

| TIGHT END

6-3 | 250 | MARYLAND | 6TH YEAR | BORN 1.31.84 | WASHINGTON D.C.
ACQUIRED D-1A IN '06 | DUNBAR HS, WASHINGTON D.C.

Vernon Davis has solidified himself as one of the most productive and versatile tight ends to ever play the game. His explosive speed and quickness, combined with his tremendous strength and athleticism, pose significant challenges for opposing defenses. Davis, who was selected by the 49ers with the 6th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, has led the team in both receiving yards and touchdowns in back-to-back seasons (2009-10). He experienced a breakout season in 2009, recording 965 receiving yards and 13 touchdowns, and was rewarded with a starting role in the Pro Bowl. Known for his hard work and dedication, Davis spends hours at a time in the weight room and is always one of the last to leave the practice field. For these qualities, he was named a team captain in both 2009 and 2010, and was given a five-year contract extension on 9/11/10. Off the field, Davis is just as active as he is on the field, pursuing everything from curling and painting to humanitarian trips overseas. One of Davis' closest friends is his younger brother, Vontae, who is a starting cornerback for the Miami Dolphins.

// TRANSACTIONS

// AWARDS & HONORS

2009: NFC Pro Bowl, Len Eshmont Award

// GOLDMINE

- After a breakout season in 2009, Vernon was named the recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. The 49ers most prestigious annual honor, the Len Eshmont Award honors the player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont and is voted on by the players.
- Vernon is not one to sit back and relax during the offseason. This past March, he joined his younger brother, Vontae, and six other NFL players on a humanitarian trip to Uganda and Rwanda. The crew spent 10 days distributing 22,000 hearing aids throughout the African regions as part of the Pros for Africa organization. "It was amazing. It was breathtaking because you look at these kids who can't hear anything and you plug these hearing aids in their ears and all of a sudden they're responding. You can't do anything but be thankful to be able to help them hear and respond. It brought a lot of emotion. I'm already an emotional guy."
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon and Vontae hosted a football and mentoring clinic at Howard University in their native Washington, D.C. "It means a lot to me, because I know how important it is to go out and give back and share some of the lessons and just the gifts that you always wanted as a kid," Davis said. "Growing up in a low-income, poverty area in the inner city of Washington, D.C., I know what it's like. When I think of the kids, it touches me in ways you can't even imagine."
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon traveled also to Afghanistan with five fellow NFL players as part of the NFL-USO tour. They first stopped at Al Udeid Air Force Base 40 miles outside of Doha, Qatar, then traveled on to Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan. The trip gave Vernon perspective and knowledge of the efforts being put forth by our military in the Middle East. "It was a once-in-a-lifetime experience. I gained a lot of understanding throughout the trip and got a chance to really see what was going on inside and out."
- Vernon was named an honorary captain of the USA Curling Team at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He attended the games and served as an ambassador for the team in order to help gain support for the sport.
- Vernon has always had an affinity for art and is an avid admirer of Michelangelo and the Renaissance period. In 2010 and 2011, he got the opportunity to give back to his passion for art. Director of Cultural Affairs for the San Francisco Arts Commission Luis R. Cancel, in conjunction with the Young at Art Festival, a project of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco, announced the launch of "Art Impact." Vernon was the inaugural speaker for Art Impact, and the San Francisco Unified School District created a scholarship in Vernon's name, called the Vernon Davis Visual Arts Scholarship, which will provide tuition support to a San Francisco youth interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts. In May of 2011, he handed out his first scholarship to San Francisco high school student, Sheryl Quock, a promising fashion designer.
- When Vernon was a freshman in college he wanted to honor the person who raised him to be the person he is today, his grandmother, Adaline. He decided to get a tattoo on the inside of his left arm with her name. His grandmother's reaction wasn't a good one at first, but she understood why he did it because in Vernon's words, he could look onto the inside of his left arm just to think of her. "She's really influenced me and really pushed me, made me open my eyes and see that besides football, there's are other things that I can get involved with if I don't make it." Adaline was the one who raised most of his siblings and gave Vernon direction in his life, teaching him to set goals and mold Vernon into the person he is today.

24 ANTHONY DIXON

| RUNNING BACK

6-1 | 233 | MISSISSIPPI ST. | 2ND YEAR | BORN 9.24.87 | JACKSON, MS
ACQUIRED D-6A IN '10 | TERRY HS, TERRY, MS

A strong and athletic running back, Anthony Dixon brings toughness to the 49ers backfield. He is deceptively agile and quick for a back his size. A 6th round pick in 2010 by San Francisco, Dixon led all NFL players in carries (74), rushing yards (300) and touchdowns (4) during preseason action as a rookie. He went on to play in all 16 regular season games as a reserve, recording 237 rushing yards and two touchdowns, as well as 9 tackles on special teams. Dixon had to overcome a variety of obstacles growing up, which included being homeless for quite some time. He and his three brothers proved resilient, however, and each has gone on to have successful athletic careers.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 6th-round (173rd overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: Thomas Herrion Award (Co-recipient with DT Will Tukuafu)

// GOLDMINE

- Anthony was the co-recipient (with DT Will Tukuafu) of the 2010 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a postive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion and is voted on by the coaches.
- Anthony was put in a unique situation when he was 10 years old. His parents had divorced the previous year and debts piled on to where the family became homeless. "As soon as we hit rock bottom, I knew what time it was. It was time for me to step up and become the man of the house. I'm just trying to provide for my family and provide for my momma so she doesn't have to go through that again. I'm really just sacrificing my body for them." Dixon had a lot of free time on his hands growing up while his mom worked three different jobs. It was his responsibility to watch his younger brothers and take care of them until his mom got home from work. "I had to grow up before it was my time, but it made me stronger today just seeing that and going through that."
- Anthony isn't the only professional athlete in the Dixon family. His younger brother, Rashun (20), is a promising outfielder in the Oakland A's farm system. A 10th round draft pick in 2008, Rashun was named the best overall athlete in the A's system in 2010 by Baseball America as a member of the Single-A Kane County Cougars in Geneva, IL. Anthony's youngest brother, Deshun, just started his pro baseball career after being selected in the 10th round by the Tampa Bay Rays in 2010. Anthony's second-oldest brother, Antwon, is a linebacker at Division II Midwestern State.

// 2010

- Scored on a 2-yd. TD run on his first career carry vs. NO (9/20). He became the first RB in the NFL to score a TD on his first career carry since Jacksonville Jaguars RB Montell Owens vs. Hou. (9/28/08). The last 49er to score a TD on his first career carry was WR Terrell Owens at StL (10/25/98).
- Registered a career high in rush atts. (5) and rush yds. (11) vs. Den. (10/31).
- Rushed for a career-high 54 yds. and 1 TD on 14 carries at Arz. (11/29).
- Rushed for a career-high 60 yds. rushing and tied his career-high with 14 carries vs. Sea. (12/12).

// COLLEGE

Played in 48 games (40 starts) and set school records with 3,994 yds. on 910 carries (4.4 ypc) and 42 TDs rushing. Also added 56 receptions for 449 yds. and 4 TDs through the air. Became the 7th player in SEC history to lead his team in rushing four separate years. Only RB Herschel Walker (994 carries) had more carries in SEC history, while his 42 TDs rank t-6th in SEC history. Eclipsed the 100-yd. plateau in 17 games, surpassing RB Jerious Norwood's school record of 13, 100-yd. Set the school record for most points in a career (276) and most all-purpose yds. (4,443 yds.). Earned first-team All-SEC honors as well as third-team All-American honors, as a senior. Rushed for a school-record 1,391 yds. on 257 carries and 12 TDs in 2009, while breaking Mississippi State's record for most 100-yd. games in a season (8). His 126.5 ypg led the SEC and ranked 6th in the nation. Appeared in 12 games as a true freshman and set numerous school single-season records for freshman, while leading the team with 668 yds. on 169 carries and 9 TDs.

// PERSONAL

- Attended Terry (Terry, MS) HS, where he was named first-team all-state by the Jackson Clarion–Ledger and the Mississippi Association of Coaches following his senior season, when he rushed for 2,683 yds. on 204 carries and 31 TDs. Also earned Metro POY honors as he gained over 150 yds. in 11 of 13 contests and led his team to the state quarterfinals. Selected to play in the Mississippi-Alabama High School All-Star Game.

| WIDE RECEIVER

5-11 | 180 | OHIO ST. | 5TH YEAR | BORN 4.12.85 | CLEVELAND, OH
ACQUIRED TRADE IN '10 - MIA. | GLENVILLE HS, CLEVELAND, OH

Blessed with incredible speed and elusiveness, Ted Ginn Jr. enters his second season in San Francisco after being acquired in a trade with the Miami Dolphins in April of 2010. In his first season in Red and Gold, Ginn set a career high and ranked 3rd in the NFL averaging 13.4 yds./PR. It marked the first time a 49ers player ranked in the top three in PR avg. in a season since 2002 (CB Jimmy Williams – 16.8 avg. led the NFL). One of the biggest influences in Ginn's life has been his high school football coach, his father, Ted Sr. The 9th overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Ginn is one of only 10 players in NFL history to register 2 KORs for TDs in the same game [at NYJ (11/1/09)].

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (9th pick overall) draft choice by Mia. in 2007... Traded by Mia. to SF for a 2010 5th-round (145th overall) draft choice on 4/16/10. The Dolphins selected CB Nolan Barroll (Maryland) with that pick.

// AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week (Week 11)

2009: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 8) | AFC Special Teams Player of the Month (November)

// GOLDMINE

- Ted is looking at a fresh start with the 49ers and would like to get back to his old self. By getting back to the "old Ted Ginn," he's confident that will award him one of his goals, which is heading to the Pro Bowl. "My goal always is to go to the Pro Bowl, but this year, I want to go out and get back to Ted Ginn, Jr. Just go out and make my team better as well as myself. That's the only goal I have. It's not too big, it's not too small. It's right there in my hands. I just have to go out and have fun and be a team player."
- Growing up in Cleveland, Ted had the benefit of having his father, Ted Sr., as his coach and mentor. His father has been the football coach at Glenville High School in Cleveland since 1997 and the track coach there since 2002. In 1999, Glenville became the first Cleveland Municipal School to reach the State Playoffs and made six subsequent appearances from 2000 to 2005. Ted Jr. played for his father during his prep career and credits his father with preparing him for the future. "It helped a lot," said Ted Jr. of having his father as a coach. "It prepared me well for all different sorts of situations. He never showed any favoritism towards me. In fact, he might have been harder on me to make me an example. It prepared me well for the next levels and now, because I played for him, I feel as though I can adjust to any type of coach."

38 DASHON GOLDSON

| SAFETY

6-2 | 200 | WASHINGTON | 5TH YEAR | BORN 9.18.84 | CARSON, CA
ACQUIRED D-4B IN '07 | NARBONNE HS, HARBOR CITY, CA

Dashon Goldson is a talented, young safety with great size, range and aggressiveness. Originally selected by the 49ers in the 4th round of the 2007 NFL Draft, Goldson became the starting FS in 2009. Goldson grew up in Southern California and started The Highest Point Foundation to provide motivational outlets for youth through sports programs, such as camps and clinics, in order to take them off the streets and onto the field, making more productive use of their time and physical abilities.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of three 4th-round (126th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed a one-year deal with SF on 8/9/11.

// GOLDMINE

- The Highest Point Foundation was created in 2009 by Dashon to provide motivational outlets for youth through sports programs, such as camps and clinics, in order to take them off the streets and onto the field, making more productive use of their time and physical abilities. In many communities throughout Southern California, where Dashon grew up, young people are plagued with issues such as dropping out of school, drug use, tobacco use, underage drinking, gang violence, poverty, parental neglect and homelessness. Many of these issues have caused them to make the wrong choices in life, where they oftentimes end up in a far worse place – and possibly jail. Dashon has seen far too much happen to the communities around him and he wants to do his part to give back – utilizing the resources that he has acquired as a professional athlete to help make a difference in people's lives. Whether it's assisting with preventative measures to ensure a child does not take the wrong path in life, or transitional measures to help someone who was previously incarcerated adjust to life as a responsible adult, Dashon vows to encourage individuals to reach "the highest point" in life through the lessons he has personally learned in the sport of football, as well as through various programs and initiatives under his Foundation.

As the heart of the 49ers offense for the past five seasons, two-time Pro Bowl running back Frank Gore has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. In 2010, despite a suffering a season-ending hip injury in Week 12, Gore joined LB Patrick Willis as the only two-time recipients of the Bill Walsh Award, which is voted on by the coaches, and given to the 49ers team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance. Known as a breakaway threat and tough inside runner, the former 3rd-round pick became the first 49er in team history to record four consecutive 1,000-yd. rushing seasons (2006-09).

2010: Bill Walsh Award

// GOLDMINE

- In 2006 and 2010, Frank was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Frank is one of two players in franchise history to win the award twice (LB Patrick Willis).
- Frank was named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Association in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "cooperation and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.
- Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami. He relied, however, on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Frank said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43-yd. score on a 4th-and-1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17-16 victory.
- During the 2010 offseason, Frank tried his hand at coaching for the first time as the defensive coordinator of the Little 49ers in a Miami youth league. Although his players were only 4 years old, Frank was still teaching them what's important. "The most important part is that the kids enjoy it. You can see how excited they get when they do something right."

PARYS HARALSON

98 | LINEBACKER

6-0 | 255 | TENNESSEE | 6TH YEAR | BORN 1.24.84 | FLORA, MS
ACQUIRED D-5 IN '06 | MADISON CENTRAL HS, MADISON, MS

A student of the game, Parys Haralson uses his unique combination of speed and size to terrorize opposing quarterbacks. Haralson developed his meticulous work ethic at a young age, working in his gradfather's junk yard. A fifth-round pick in 2006, Haralson entered the starting lineup in 2007 and has posted 19.5 career sacks, ranking t-4th among 49ers LBs since 1982.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 5th-round (140th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006... Signed a four-year contract extension through 2013 on 4/16/09.

// GOLDMINE

- Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, MS, his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world. He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junkyard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue-collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a strong work ethic because it was an 8-hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perseverance.
- Thanks to his upbringing by this mom and grandparents, Parys will always remember where he came from – and now it's his opportunity to give back. Parys aspires to start his own foundation to benefit the children in his hometown of Flora, MS. "There are a bunch of kids in my hometown. They are athletic, but they just run around and play football. No one really teaches them the techniques and the specialized training for each position." When he goes home, Parys spends time working out at his old high school and his middle school, taking time to show the students everything it takes to be successful. "You can see how excited the kids get when I walk in. I know that they look up to me and I take that responsibility seriously. I want to show them everything it takes to be successful and show each of them that they have the ability to be successful." As part of his foundation, Parys is looking to run a football camp, teaching kids the importance of eating healthy and staying in shape, while also teaching them proper football techniques.

A SCOUT'S VIEW

"He's similar to Phillip Adams. He's from a smaller school and a little unknown. But at his pro day, he had a real good workout. What we're looking for is the quickness. It's the same thing we saw last year in Phillip when we were (scouting) Phillip -- the quickness, the close. I don't know that anybody in our building has ever heard of it, a guy who's been a four-time captain at the college level. He's all about football. He's a very smart young man and competitive." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

THE SCOUTING REPORT

"This is a guy we feel can run the power game, can run between the tackles, can get out on the edges, can pass protect, can come out of the backfield and catch the football, can return kicks (and) can play on coverage teams, if we ask him to. We like the way he finishes his runs. He's got very good (functional) speed. We love his feet, his vision and love the fact he can step through tackles. We like the guy's versatility. And he's a football player. He loves the game (and) is passionate about it." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

77 MIKE IUPATI

| GUARD

6-5 | 331 | IDAHO | 2ND YEAR | BORN 5.12.87 | AMERICAN SAMOA
ACQUIRED D-1B IN '10 | WESTERN HS, ANAHIEM, CA

Selected 17th overall in the 2010 NFL Draft, Mike Iupati showcased his rare combination of size and athleticism as he was named the team's starting left guard during training camp. He and fellow lineman, Anthony Davis, became two of just 14 rookies to start every game in 2010. A mild and polite native of American Samoa off the field, Iupati plays with a mean streak that is essential for offensive linemen. Following his rookie season, Iupati was named to The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All- Rookie teams. He was the first 49er to be named to an All-Rookie team since LB Patrick Willis in 2007.

- After being born and raised in American Samoa, Mike and his family left all of their belongings and moved to California when he was 14 years old. The family moved in with Mike's aunt and uncle, where they lived for a year before settling in Orange County. Mike only knew part of the English language and really had to work extra hard to learn the language in school. "It was hard. We spoke English in school, but when I got home we spoke Samoan. We didn't have the comfort of speaking English for about 2-3 years."
- Mike's brother did all of the tattoos on his arm and leg. All of the art on his body is reflective of Samoan culture. "Some of them are Fala, the centipede, the waves, the ocean, fish. It goes back to what we normally use." The lion on his leg was artwork that Mike liked and asked his brother to also put a Polynesian design around it.
- Although Mike has not lived in American Samoa for several years, his mother will never let him forget his culture. "My mom was tough on us, but it's discipline. That's why a lot of Polynesians are disciplined when they come to the U.S. You have to always respect your elders. It's our culture."

ACQUIRED D-7B IN '09 | CAROL CITY SENIOR HS, MIAMI GARDENS, FL

Ricky Jean Francois is a versatile defender who is able to lineup at all three of the 49ers defensive line positions. A seventh round draft choice in the 2009 NFL Draft, Jean Francois saw extensive action in the defensive line rotation in 2010, posting a career-high 23 tackles, 1.0 sack and 1 FF. - With relatives in Haiti, Ricky felt obligated during the 2010 offseason to help his family and fellow countrymen following the earthquake that left nearly one million people homeless. Unfortunately, Ricky lost some family to the earthquake, but that didn't deter him from trying to make a difference in the wake of the disaster. "I want to obviously help because I have family there, but also if the shoe was on the other foot, I would want other people to help out the same way." He first worked to obtain donations for Haiti, getting GMC to donate 50 brand new 2010 trucks. Ricky then met with former President Bill Clinton in Miami to discuss what he wanted to have built in the capital of Port-Au-Prince, namely a school similar to the ones close to his hometown in Dade County that can house up to 6,000 children.
- While Ricky enjoys the game of football, he also wants to use his position to help make his community a safer place. Growing up in Dade County, it wasn't always easy for people to walk around in his neighborhood and feel safe. Ricky hopes that one day he will be able to help his community and the surrounding communities get to the point where that is no longer a problem. "If I can talk to 10 kids and get in the head of five, I'm good. I'm basically trying to change my community. I want to get to the point where people can walk outside and not be scared."
- Ricky worked at Habitat for Humanity throughout college, helping in a variety of areas. "There were things that were ripped out of houses and walls. There was a point where we had to move some concrete and we were ghosts. I'm a dark guy and when I walked out I was white."

BRIAN 86 JENNINGS

| TIGHT END/LONG SNAPPER

6-5 | 242 | ARIZONA ST. | 12TH YEAR | BORN 10.14.76 | MESA, AZ
ACQUIRED D-7B IN '00 | RED MOUNTAIN HS, MESA, AZ

One of the NFL's elite long snappers, Brian Jennings has snapped to 9 different placekickers and 4 different punters throughout his professional career. Jennings has been the mark of consistency for the 49ers since being selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft. Entering his 12th season, he is the longest-tenured player on the roster and ranks t-13th among active players for most games played with their current team. One of the most accurate and efficient long snappers in the NFL, Jennings has been charged with only one fumble in his career, in 2001, on a good snap that went right through the punter's hands.

- Brian has touched the lives of numerous people as a member of the 49ers, taking part in dozens of speaking engagements and charity events throughout his career. He looks to continue inspiring people once his playing days are over as well. Over the past four years, Brian has been working on his own book. "I believe everyone can find their purpose and live an inspired life. I feel my life has been blessed in so many ways and I want to share it with people. No matter what troubles come your way, you can realize your potential. In my writing, I combine examples throughout history with my own personal story, while using spiritual health and wellness as the vehicle."
- Brian believes the sky is the limit when it comes to his knowledge base. "I really see the value of education and continual learning. Every offseason, I try to pursue some kind of intellectual academic project that is measurable. I want to be powerful intellectually." Still undecided on whether to pursue an MBA degree or become a chiropractor once his playing days are over, Brian has been taking classes in both areas at Arizona State and Scottsdale Community College over the past several offseasons. He's also taken part in the NFL's Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard and Stanford, and has plans to attend the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp in the near future. "I'm like a sponge when it comes to educating myself. I'm constantly reading the Wall Street Journal and various financial magazines, which has sparked a better understanding of how politics effects the economy and business world."
- Brian doesn't spend much time relaxing during the offseason. He earned his certification as a yoga instructor in 2008 after taking part in a 200-hour program that lasted five months. With a modern approach, Brian cranks up lively music in the classes he teaches in Scottsdale, AZ. He has plans to open his own yoga studio in the near future.
- An avid golfer during his childhood, Brian picked the sport back up a year ago and has a whole different approach to his game nowadays. "I've been developing my golf game systematically and working to get my handicap down. It starts with the basics – understanding the structure of a golf swing, the different types of shots available, scoring around the green and the keys to managing a successful round." Despite being a 10 handicap during college, Brian has taken lessons recently in hopes of becoming a scratch golfer. He also reads various golf books to help improve his game. One of his favorites is Short Game Bible by David Pelz. Brian believes there is a strong correlation between golfing and his role on the football field. "I would say long snapping and golfing are mentally similar. It's all about practice and having a routine."

A SCOUT'S VIEW

"When you look at the measurable, he's 6-foot, 210 pounds, runs low 4.4s and you can see it on film. He loves special teams. You look at the TCU film, covering kicks, covering punts, he's the first guy down and he loves contact. We're going to throw him into the mix at strong safety, but his path to making this football team is on special teams. We're looking for him to become an elite special teams player." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

| QUARTERBACK

ACQUIRED D-2 IN '11 | PITTMAN HS, TURLOCK, CA

Colin Kaepernick has the perfect blend of athleticism, moxie, field vision, intelligence and arm strength for the NFL. The only player in the NCAA history to throw for over 10,000 yards and rush for over 4,000 yards, Kaepernick has an excellent work ethic that will help him make the transition from the pistol offense he ran in college to the 49ers West Coast Offense.

// TRANSACTIONS

// GOLDMINE

- Colin was born in Milwaukee, WI, and his mother was a 19-year old who worked in retail sales. She was in a tough situation and thought that adoption would be the best way to give her young son a good life. She had three requirement for the adoptive family - siblings, financial stability and a sports background. She decided that the best fit Colin would be with Rick and Teresa Kaepernick and their two children, Kyle and Devon.
- Even as a 4th grade student at Dutcher Elementary School in Turlock, CA, Colin knew he was going to play for the 49ers. In a letter that students had to write to their future selves, that despite his small stature at the time, Colin saw something special in himself. He wrote, "I'm 5-2, 91 lbs and a good athelte. I think in 7 seven years i will be between 6 ft. to 6-4, 140 lbs. I hope I go to a good college in football, then go to the pros and play on the Niners or the Packers, even if they aren't good in seven years."
- In the summer of 2010, Colin - who was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 2009 MLB Draft - was offered $30,000 to go to Arizona for a month and throw a few bullpen sessions. Looking ahead to his senior season as Nevada's quarterback, he declined the offer saying, "What would that say about me as a leader of the team?"

COACH'S REPORT

"You hear talk about Colin being a developmental quarterback. I heard that a few times after we selected Colin. That goes for all quarterbacks. That is every quarterback who goes from college to the NFL. He is no different. He has got great gifts from Mom, Dad, God. He comes with the energy and the ability to think his way to success. All those things and more." - 49ers Head Coach Jim Harbaugh

THE SCOUTING REPORT

"We see him as a guy that can come in, and once again, is versatile. He can play guard, center. He's held up at left tackle, and did so very well against some very good competition. University of Florida was probably his best game. That was the game that really attracted us to him. We like players that can step up in big games. It shows a little bit of what they're made of, and he certainly was able to do that." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."

RAY McDONALD

91 | DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-3 | 290 | FLORIDA | 5TH YEAR | BORN 9.2.84 | PAHOKEE, FL
ACQUIRED D-3B IN '07 | GLADES CENTRAL HS, BELLE GLADE, FL

A 3rd-round pick in 2007, Ray McDonald has seen extensive action on the 49ers defensive line over the course of his career. Known for his instincts and quickness off the line, McDonald has played a significant role in the defense allowing opposing running backs to gain just 3.7 ypc since 2007, which ranks 4th in the NFL during that span. At the University of Florida in 2005, McDonald overcame a pair of serious knee injuries to re-establish himself as one of the most tireless workers in the trenches. A big playmaker on defense, he has a knack for being in the right place at the right time. Over the past two seasons, he is one of only 3 NFL defensive linemen to score two TDs (Min. DE Jared Allen and Atl. DE Kroy Biermann).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed to a 5-year deal on 7/29/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid-80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14-10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray's grandfather played running back at Bethune Cookman and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF. Ray didn't have strong aspirations of playing football professionally until later in high school, when his father began to prepare him for the pro game. "He didn't really push me into playing football when I was growing up, but I told him I really wanted to take off with football. So he dedicated his whole year to me working out. He bought me some strength shoes, he trained me every day. That was my starting point."
- Ray has had his share of success growing up playing football. While in high school, he won a state championship four straight years, and then a national title at Florida, but still strives to achieve the ultimate prize of an NFL championship. "I have individual goals, but it all comes down to winning. I come from a winning tradition. All I'm missing out on is an NFL Championship."
- Since the 2008 offseason, Ray has looked for other ways to improve himself as a pass rusher. He has been boxing with the 49ers training staff in order to add more moves to his pass rushing repertoire. "It's something that I can add to my tray with hand-eye coordination. It helps with my endurance and my hand placement and I have enough force to knock someone off balance."

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

BRUCE 49 MILLER

| FULLBACK

6-2 | 248 | CENTRAL FLORIDA | ROOKIE | BORN 8.6.87 | CANTON, GA
ACQUIRED D-7A IN '11 | WODSTOCK HS, WOODSTOCK, GA

A productive defensive end in college, Bruce Miller will make the transition to fullback for the 49ers. Known for his quickness off the edge, Miller plays fast and is very smart. The two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year's blue-collar work ethic made the 49ers confident he will be able to transition to the offensive side of the ball.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 7th-round (211th overall) draft choices by SF in 2011.

// GOLDMINE

- Bruce wasn't the most touted player coming out of high school. In fact, saying he was under the radar was an overstatement; Bruce wasn't even on the radar. UCF defensive coordinator Dave Huxtable, however, was evaluating other Georgia players and noticed Bruce on film. "He was playing tight end," Huxtable said. "Running and catching balls and making players miss. He was on the kickoff cover team and he was the first one down there on the kickoff cover team plays. Then I got to watch him play basketball. He's a 6-2 center, but he's underneath there just battling on the boards. He's a special guy." Huxtable was one of Bruce's major infulences in becoming the two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. "He played a huge roll for me," said Bruce. "I always looked at him for motivation and help. I went to Coach Hux because of the bond we made during recruiting and then playing for him at linebacker. Coach Hux, the things that he does the time and effort he puts in, is just unbelievable."
- One of Bruce's biggest attributes is his gritty attitude. "The biggest thing is he's just relentless," said Miller's former UCF Defensive Coordinator and current Knight linebacker coach John Skladany. "He really enjoys that part of the game. He goes and looks for the contact. He just keeps going and going and going. You're going to have to shoot him to stop him. If he's going to be blocking, some linebacker is going to have a long day." The 49ers saw the same toughness in Bruce and are looking to have him transition from defensive end to fullback. "They said they wanted to bring somebody in who was tough and could bring a hit every play," said Bruce. "And i think I fit that description pretty well."

A SCOUT'S VIEW

"He is wired the way we want our guys wired. This guy is wired right. He plays the game 100 percent, every snap. Here's a guy who can come in and learn fullback, possibly learn some outside linebacker, play on (special) teams. He'll show up on game days because he outworks everybody." - 49ers General Manager Trent Baalke

JOSHUA MORGAN

84 | WIDE RECEIVER

6-0 | 219 | VIRGINIA TECH | 4TH YEAR | BORN 6.20.85 | WASHINGTON D.C.
ACQUIRED D-6 IN '08 | WOODSON HS, WASHINGTON D.C.

Joshua Morgan continued to display his playmaking abilities throughout the 2010 season, ranking 3rd on the team with a career-high 698 rec. yds. Morgan has continued to develop into one of the better blocking WRs in the league. His ability to get off jams at the line of scrimmage and a great sense of football awareness has served him well as he's developed into a strong wide receiver. Drafted in the 6th round of the 2008 NFL Draft, he is one of only two wide receivers taken in the 6th round to be on a current NFL roster. Off the field, Morgan has always had a passion for poetry, using his past experiences in life to draw parallels to football. He one day hopes to write books using some of his poetry. Morgan also excels in community outreach, having logged countless hours helping people throughout the Bay Area.

Originally a 6th-round (174th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

// GOLDMINE

- Joshua dedicated a lot of his time as a youth to writing poems. One of the ways he would avoid finding trouble in the tough streets of Washington D.C. was to not leave his house much. "I would get tired of hearing the gunshots and police sirens. That's why I started writing stories and poetry. I write about how I grew up, situations that I've been through, people I've known in my life." His writing courses were the most enjoyable to him at Virginia Tech. Joshua eventually wants to write books, including a book of poetry and his autobiography.
- Joshua credits his godparents, Patrick Gaither, who was his AAU basketball coach, and Sonja Strickland-Gaither, as having the biggest influence on him growing up. "I met them when I was 16 and they've been everything to me. I definitely wouldn't be where I am now without them. They showed me the better aspects of life, including spirituality." In October 2009, Joshua was crushed by the news that Sonja was diagnosed with breast cancer. On his bicep, Joshua has a tattoo of a breast cancer ribbon with angels' wings. On the ribbon it has Sonja's name and the date of her diagnosis. Joshua is looking forward to completing the tattoo with an inscription of another date – that which Sonja beat cancer.
- During the 2010 offseason, Joshua and teammate Dominique Zeigler participated in an internship with Comcast SportsNet Bay Area. The two, who would drive up to station headquarters once a week over a two-month period, had a different role each time. "It was a great learning experience because they showed us all the different parts of their operation. We would work with a producer one day, then the next week we would serve as stage managers. We also got an opportunity to break down highlights and edit, as well as do some on-air stuff. It's definitely a field that I could picture myself in down the line."
- When Joshua was drafted by the 49ers in 2008, he became a teammate of one of his biggest rivals – Vernon Davis. Joshua attended HD Woodson High School, while Vernon was located at nearby rival Dunbar High School. The two kept the rivalry alive in college as Joshua lettered at Virginia Tech and Vernon at Maryland. "Vernon grew up right down the street from me and I got to know him pretty well. There has been a friendly competition between he and I for a long time. I like to claim that I've been beating him my whole life. We beat him in the Championship Game in high school and then we beat him twice when I was at Virginia Tech."
- One event that had a lasting impact on Joshua was when he and his Virginia Tech teammates were hit hard emotionally after a gunman went on a campus shooting spree in April 2007. Joshua was in the building next door to where the shots first rang out, and raced to safety in his apartment across the street. "It was a real devastating time," he said. "It was kind of surreal. You didn't really expect anything like that to happen."
- When Joshua's playing career is done, he definitely sees himself moving to the arts - particularly writing and acting. "I want to write books, do a little acting. I used to act in high school and took an acting class in college."

2009: USA Football/NFLPA "All-Fundamentals" Team

// GOLDMINE

- When he's not paving the way for Frank Gore to run, Moran can be found working within his community. In 2005, Moran founded the Moran Norris Foundation, seeking to help Houston-area students become champions in athletics, character and education. In San Francisco, Moran "adopted" a group of students in the Brother2Brother/Sister2Sister Mentoring Program as part of his Foundation's initiatives. Moran has hosted the youngsters at 49ers games, provided them with financial support and taught them the importance of life skills, education, goal setting, hard work and good character. "When I was growing up I remember this football player cameand just talked to the kids, and I still remember that day. I felt if I ever had a chance to go back like that, I would do the same thing."
- Through his foundation, Moran has donated to children through his Shopping for Good Character program. His foundation recognizes children in the Houston Public School District for making strides in the classroom. "Too many programs focus on the "A" students. I wanted to reward the kids who keep working hard and fight to make strides on a consistent basis."
- You wouldn't know it by looking at Moran now, but he was once a chubby little kid. That all changed during his freshman year in high school when his dad, Graston, made a purchase at a neighborhood gym that was closing down. Graston brought home all kinds of weights and benches for Moran and his brother, Graston, to use. Moran's father built a shed in the backyard that turned into a makeshift gym for him, his brother and and their neighbors. That's where Moran developed his love for working out.
- When Moran was old enough to have a part-time job, he was not afraid of hard work. Through the years, he worked at Six Flags Amusement Park, Kroger's Supermarket and Walgreens. "I was a sack boy (a grocery bagger) and I made good money off of tips. My trick to get tips was once I had packed the bags, to start walking outside with them to the people's cars. Once I started they'd feel bad stopping me. I got some good tips."

| TACKLE/GUARD

6-5 | 323 | SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA | 4TH YEAR | BORN 3.15.86 | COMPTON, CA
ACQUIRED D-2 IN '08 | DOMINGUEZ HS, COMPTON, CA

Chilo Rachal has continued to showcase his power and mobility at right guard, starting all but three games since 2009. A 2nd round pick in the 2008 NFL Draft, Rachal worked his way into the 49ers starting lineup midway through his rookie season, and since then, has shown improvement in his knowledge of blocking techniques and schemes. A dedicated family man, Rachal chose to enter the NFL Draft earlier than planned due to his mother and father's health issues and medical expenses. "Basically," Rachal said at the NFL Combine in 2008, "I have no choice. I have to do something for my family." Rachal grew up in Compton, CA, and had two older brothers who were killed when he was young. He used their life experiences as motivation, a wise choice that led him to the NFL.

// GOLDMINE

- Chilo wasn't planning on entering the NFL Draft in 2008, but a tumor discovered in his mother's stomach prompted him to enter early so he could help with her medical costs.

ALDON 99 SMITH

| LINEBACKER

6-4 | 258 | MISSOURI | ROOKIE | BORN 9.25.89 | KANSAS CITY, MO
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '11 | RAYTOWN SENIOR HS, RAYTOWN, MO

With great size and speed, Aldon Smith has the ability to line up at a variety of positions, whether its standing up or with his hand in the dirt. He is a tenacious pass rusher with great initial quickness. Smith holds the Missouri single-season sack record (11.5 in '09), which was previously held by fellow 49er Justin Smith (11.0 in '00).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (7th overall) draft choice by SF in 2011.

// GOLDMINE

- When Aldon was 10 years old, his parents divorced. Aldon remained with his mother, Kimberly, in Iowa as his father moved to Kansas City, but five years later, when his mother moved to Atlanta, he moved in with his father, Thurston. Until that point, Aldon had never played an organized sport, but that all changed in Kansas City. He joined the football and basketball teams at Raytown HS, but only under strict conditions enforced by his father. "He had to make good grades, nothing less than a 3.0 GPA," said Thurston, a former member of the US Army. "And he had to be responsible and respectful." As a junior, Aldon resisted his father's mandate, but everything began to click for him as senior. "I wasn't going to bend the rules, and he knew what the rules were," Thurston said. "The transition period was difficult at first, but we got through it." Aldon was a star on both sides of the ball, garnering interested from several big time college programs.
- In recent years, Aldon has dabbled in boxing and mixed martial arts training, both of which he said are helpful with this pass-rush technique and mental endurance. "Imagine someone trying to get their hands on you in a fight," Aldon said. "It's just like a tackle trying to get his hands on you. It all translates on how you move your hands."

THE SCOUTING REPORT

"You look at the versatility he brings to the table. He's played inside. He's played outside. He's got good quickness off the ball and he has those 36-inch arms. You look at the quickness. One thing that I'm looking for in a defensive player is a guy that can play to the football with his eyes. You watch Aldon – you can watch a lot of snaps – and he rarely takes his eyes off the ball carrier. If you watch him, he's looking past the blocker. He's trying to find the football, he's feeling the blocker, but just look at his eyes and where they stay. He also has some unique flexibility. He can get his body in position that other guys can't." - 49ers General Manger Trent Baalke

// COLLEGE

TIGER TALK

"He's come in and he hasn't been like, 'Hey, I'm the seventh pick' or anything like that. He hops right in, gets in line and works. ... Everything I've seen he's just a football guy. He definitely looks the part. I think he'll do a tremendous job out there. If you're willing to work, you're going to have success if you have all the physical attributes. And he definitely has that. I don't see why he won't have a great year." - 49ers DT Justin Smith, a former Missouri Tiger, on Aldon Smith, who broke his single-season sack record at Missouri

11 ALEX SMITH

| QUARTERBACK

6-4 | 217 | UTAH | 7TH YEAR | BORN 5.7.84 | SEATTLE, WA
ACQUIRED D-1 IN '05 | HELIX HS, LA MESA, CA

A tough, intelligent signal caller, Alex Smith showed his development at quarterback after having battled through injuries and scheme changes early in his career. Despite not being under contract with the 49ers during the 2011 offseason, Smith was one of the key orchestrators of the players' organized workouts and camps at San Jose St. That leadership is one of the special qualities Jim Harbaugh was attracted to. After rebounding from a shoulder injury in 2008, Smith set career highs in TDs (18) and comp. pct. (60.5) in 2009. Last season, he set a career high with a quarterback rating of 82.1. In 2006, he established the Alex Smith Foundation, which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (1st pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2005... Signed to a one-year contract on 7/29/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Alex graduated college in three years with a bachelor's degree in economics and scored one of the highest scores (40) on the Wonderlic Test prior to the NFL Draft.
- In early 2007, Alex committed $500,000 to the University of Utah's athletic department. The generous donation was the lead gift for the Alex Smith Strength and Conditioning Facility—a $1.5 million expansion of Utah's varsity athletics weight room. The money kicked off a campaign to raise the remaining funds for the project. Plans called for the expansion of the Dee Glen Smith Center, which houses the strength and conditioning room, as well as the football coaching offices, meeting, training and equipment rooms. The facility covers 11,000 square feet—a 3,500 square foot improvement from its current size, and features new lifting stations and cardiovascular conditioning space.
- One of the main reasons Alex chose to attend Utah was his love for winter sports. "I've skied since I was one-and-a-half. My dad was a ski instructor at one time and my parents have a condo in Montana. When I was 12 I took up snowboarding and that's why I loved Utah. I haven't been on a mountain since I was drafted, but I'll wakeboard and water ski whenever I can."
- Alex has always played with the idea of going to law school at some point in life. With that in mind, he chose to pursue a degree in economics. When he arrived at the University of Utah, his high school workload made him eligible to start his studies as a junior and start his major studies. "I am not going to be able to help you plan for your retirement, but I enjoyed the part of my classes that allowed me to better understand the philosophy of economics and how different economies worked."
- In 2006, Alex established the Alex Smith Foundation (www.alexsmithfoundation.org), which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood.

94 JUSTIN SMITH

| DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-4 | 285 | MISSOURI | 11TH YEAR | BORN 9.30.79 | HOLTS SUMMIT, MO
ACQUIRED FA IN '08 | JEFFERSON CITY HS, JEFFERSON CITY, MO

A relentless and explosive defender who has never missed a game to injury, Justin Smith anchors the 49ers defensive front. Nicknamed "Cowboy" for his blue-collar, Midwestern approach to his job and life in general, Smith was a key leader in the 49ers player-organized 2011 offseason workouts. A two-time Pr Bowl selection, he enters the 2011 season with an ac tive streak of 155 consecutive starts, by far the longes streak of any current NFL defensive lineman (Min. DE Kevin Williams is 2nd with 83), and the 6th-longest of any active NFL player. Since joining the 49ers in 2008, Smith leads the team with 21.5 sacks and ranks first in the NFL among defensive tackles over that span. His 21.5 sacks rank 2nd in franchise history to DT Dana Stubblefield (46.5) for most sacks by a defensive tackle. In 2010, Smith tied his career high with 8.5 sacks, matching the total from his rookie year in 2001 with the Cincinnati Bengals.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (4th pick overall) draft choice by Cin. in 2001…
Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Cin. on 3/1/08.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2008: Bill Walsh Award

2009: NFC Pro Bowl

2010: NFC Pro Bowl - 2nd Selection, PERRY/YONAMINE Unity Award, Ed Block Courage Award, Hazeltine Ironman Award

// GOLDMINE

- In 2008, Justin was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP.
- Justin was one of the most sought after free agents in the NFL in the 2008 offseason. When the 49ers brought him in for a visit, they knew they had to sell the Midwesterner on the California lifestyle. Justin, who often wears cowboy boots and grew up on his father's cattle ranch in Missouri, discussed the 49ers defensive philosophy in depth with the team's coaches and was also taken on a helicopter tour of the city. It didn't take long for him to make his decision as he cancelled his future visits with prospective teams and signed with San Francisco. Although Justin wants to play in San Francisco for several years to come, he looks to eventually return to his roots. "When I'm done playing ball, I'll probably move to Missouri or Texas and get a ranch. That's how I grew up. I think it teaches you survival."

ADAM 68 SNYDER

| TACKLE/GUARD

6-6 | 325 | OREGON | 7TH YEAR | BORN 1.30.82 | FULLERTON, CA
ACQUIRED D-3B IN '05 | LA SERNA HS, WHITTIER, CA

Adam Snyder has been a valuable asset to the 49ers since being drafted in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft. The six-year veteran has the ability to play both guard and tackle and has made starts at each of the four positions. In each of the last two offseasons, Snyder has also worked at center. His versatility and knowledge of the game provide the 49ers with a valuable resource on the offensive line. Growing up in Southern California, Snyder was an avid surfer as a child and continues to ride the waves off the Santa Cruz shoreline.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (94th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2005.

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in Whittier, CA, Adam lived a short distance from the coast. He and his friends would often make the short drive to the beach, where they'd spend some time soaking in the rays and surfing. Due to the cold water in Oregon, Adam didn't surf in college, but he picked the sport back up when he was drafted by the 49ers in 2005. "On one of my first trips to Santa Cruz, I met a local shaper named Doug Haut. He shaped me a board and it kind of took off from there. I surfed quite a bit my first couple years in the league and try to get out there when I can these days." Adam now has a collection of five surfboards – three 10-footers, a nine-footer and a seven-foot fish – that he rides at the local breaks. His wife, Erika, learned how to surf in Hawaii and enjoys going out in the water with Adam.
- Since his early childhood, Adam has had aspirations of one day becoming a police officer. "It's been a line of work that has interested me for a long time. I imagine the camaraderie you build between your fellow officers is similar to the solidarity that's created among teammates on a football team. Everyone has each other's back." If Adam has any questions about the joining the force, he doesn't need to turn far. His good friend and former 49ers teammate, Patrick Estes, recently joined the Santa Clara Police Department. Adam hopes to go on a few ride-a-longs in the near future to get an up-and-close understanding of what being a police officer entails.
- Ever since his freshman year in high school, Adam has made annual camping trips into the middle of the desert with his family and friends. "We've been setting up camp at the same place near Chiriaco Summit for years. It's basically in the middle of nowhere and we just ride 4x4's and enjoy one another's company."
- Adam gained some good work experience growing up in Whittier. He briefly served as a doughnut filler at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts before working a seasonal job at Honey Baked Hams, where he unloaded 50-60 pound boxes of meat in the freezer. Adam's most enjoyable job was at Rockview Dairy. "It wasn't your ordinary dairy, like milk and eggs. It was actually like a grocery store, it had everything. The coolest part was that it was a drive-thru. You'd just drive up, place your order and I'd go pick out the items from the back. I think it's weird that I haven't seen a similar type of place anywhere else."

36 SHAWNTAE SPENCER

| CORNERBACK

6-1 | 190 | PITTSBURGH | 8TH YEAR | BORN 2.22.82 | RANKIN, PA
ACQUIRED D-2B IN '04 | WOODLAND HILLS HS, PITTSBURGH, PA

A physical and cagey cornerback, Shawntae Spencer provides the 49ers with a smooth and steady playmaker in the defensive backfield. After suffering a season-ending knee injury in 2008, Spencer rebounded in 2009 to claim the starting left corner role and later earn the Ed Block Courage Award. The savvy veteran is one of only 12 NFL cornerbacks to start all 32 games over the past two seasons. A native of Pittsburgh, Spencer calls upon the attitude and toughness of his hometown to help him overcome adversity on and off the field.

- Youth sports were always important to Shawntae when he was growing up in Pittsburgh. But over the years, the number of volunteers declined, as did the options for the kids. To help solve this problem, Shawntae is working on building a YMCA in downtown Pittsburgh. "I want it to be a safe-haven, a hub for kids where they can go after school, where they can go whether they're playing sports or not. We will provide kids with tutoring assistance, a mentoring program and give them someone they can talk with. We will also work with youth sports. I want to make the sports in the community free for the kids. A lot of times, kids can't play because their parents can't afford it. I just want them to be able to show up and participate in whatever activities they want." Looking to not only impact his hometown, Shawntae is also looking at building a YMCA in the Bay Area, his home since being drafted by the 49ers in 2004. "Once I get this YMCA going in Pittsburgh, I want to build one in the Bay Area, focusing on a poverty stricken area – some place where the kids don't have many options of things to do when they get out of school. I want to try to keep the kids off the street corners and give them some options as far as sports and activities that won't cost them too much money."

JOE 74 STALEY

| TACKLE

6-5 | 315 | CENTRAL MICHIGAN | 5TH YEAR | BORN 8.30.84 | ROCKFORD, MI
ACQUIRED D-1B IN '07 | ROCKFORD HS, ROCKFORD, MI

Joe Staley has showcased his abilities on the 49ers offensive line since being chosen as the second of San Francisco's two 1st round draft picks in 2007. During the 2011 offseason, Stale increased his role as a leader in helping to orchestrate the player-organized workouts and camps. As a rookie, he started all 16 contests at right tackle before switching to left tackle in his second year. A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the 1st round of the NFL Draft. Although he plays with a mean streak on the field, off the field, the charismatic Staley keeps his teammates and the fans entertained as the host of The Joe Show, on 49ers.com.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 1st-round (28th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed a 6-year contract extension through 2017 on 6/6/09.

// GOLDMINE

- Following his rookie season, Joe got a suprise call from a marketing company looking to create a bobblehead in his likeness for a hometown baseball promotion. The former Rockford High School and Central Michigan star was taken back by it. "It's pretty crazy," said Joe. "It's kind of crazy to have something that has your likeness on it. It kind of freaked me out." His bobblehead was given out to the first 1,000 fans at Fifth Third Ballpark when the West Michigan Whitecaps faced the Lansing Lugnuts. On the bobblehead, Joe is holding a helmet and is decked out in his high school uniform including his No. 84 jersey. "I think they were going for my retro-Rockford days. In the current day, you would have to put 200 pounds on that doll," said Joe, who was a relay runner and tight end in high school.

He has completed several internships for a construction company and worked closely with an engineer and project manager to learn the inner workings of the business. DELANIE 46 WALKER

| TIGHT END

6-0 | 242 | CENTRAL MISSOURI | 6TH YEAR | BORN 8.12.84 | POMONA, CA
ACQUIRED D-6A IN '06 | POMONA HS, POMONA, CA

Delanie Walker provides the 49ers with an explosive receiving threat at the tight end position, posing several match-up problems for opposing defenses. Walker has seen his receiving total rise in each of the last three seasons, including setting career highs in recepts. (29) and rec. yds. (331) in 2010. Originally a 6th-round selection by San Francisco in 2006, Walker has put his deceptive speed on display not only on offense, but also on special teams, totaling 33 special teams tackles over the past two years. Walker is one of only three players to be drafted out of Central Missouri since 1990 (DL Colston Wetherington - 7th round by Dal. in 1999 and DE Roderick Green - 5th round by Bal. in 2003).

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 6th-round (175th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006... Signed a three-year extension through the 2012 season on 6/22/08.

// GOLDMINE

- Over the years, Delanie has owned quite a selection of cars, ranging from classics to newer models. Among his collection has been a 1964 Chevy Impala, 1972 Buick Skylark, 1989 Camaro IROC-Z28, 2008 Mercedes-Benz CL63 AMG and 2010 F250 truck. Delanie's passion for cars can be traced back to his childhood, where he would spend countless hours refurbishing old autos with the help of his friend's father, who was a mechanic. "Growing up we didn't have much money, so we would buy cars from the junkyard and fix them up. We'd spend all day taking off parts and replacing them, just like new. The most important lesson I learned was 'the way you take it off is the way you put it back on.'" Delanie admits that cars these days have become more advanced and that he is only comfortable working on models that are pre-1990. After his playing days are over, he envisions owning a car restoration shop.
- Having grown up in a tough neighborhood, Delanie knows first-hand how difficult it is to overcome obstacles in order to achieve one's goals. Throughout the past several offseasons, Delanie has visited delinquent youths across the Bay Area, making it a point to share his story and give positive reinforcement to those who can relate to him. "It's very important that people know about what I've been through. You can grow up in the worst neighborhood and still make it to the NFL. That's why I want kids, especially in the Bay Area, to understand that you can overcome those situations, because I did."
- For a 240-pound tight end, Delanie sure makes a lot of tacklers miss. His speed on the field can be linked to his success on the track as a high school senior. Despite lettering only one year, Delanie won the Division III 100m (10.6) and long jump (21-5) titles, while also serving as a member of the winning 4x100m relay team at the 2002 Miramonte League Meet. Delanie's younger brother, Anthony, competed in the 400m and 4x400m at the collegiate level, and has his hopes set on making the Olympic team one day.

// 2010

- Set career highs in recepts. (29) and rec. yds. (331).
- Registered a career-high 85 rec. yds. on 5 recepts., including a 38-yd. catch to the 1-yd. line to set up the 49ers first TD vs. Den. (10/31).
- Hauled in 4 recepts. for 80 yds. vs. StL (11/14), marking the first time in his career he registered 80 rec. yds. in back-to-back games.

// 2009

- Set a new single-season career high with 233 rec. yds.

31 DONTE WHITNER

| SAFETY

5-10 | 208 | OHIO ST. | 6TH YEAR | BORN 7.24.85 | CLEVELAND, OH
ACQUIRED FA IN '11 | GLENVILLE HS, CLEVELAND, OH

A physical presence in the defensive backfield, Donte Whitner spent his first five NFL seasons as the Buffalo Bills starting strong safety before joining the 49ers in 2011. Whitner was originally selected 8th overall in the 2006 NFL Draft by Buffalo and went on to help the Bills finish in the top 10 in pass defense in three of his five years (7th in '06, 2nd in '09, 3rd in '10) with the team.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (8th overall) draft choice by Buf. in the 2006 NFL Draft...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 8/6/11.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2006: Defensive Rookie of the Month (September), All-Rookie Team

// GOLDMINE

- Upon his arrival to the 49ers in August, it didn't take long for Donte to reconnect with a familiar face. Both Donte and WR Ted Ginn Jr. attended Glenville High School in Cleveland, playing for Ginn's father, Ted Ginn Sr. Donte graduated from high school alongside former 49ers QB Troy Smith, while Ted Jr. followed close behind a year later.
- When Buffalo drafted Donte in 2006, he was just 20 years old. He had left for the NFL following his junior year in college, only after graduating several months early from high school to attend Ohio St.
- Watching Donte sprint from sideline to sideline on Sundays makes it hard to believe there were doubts on whether he would be able to walk again after suffering a near fatal accident as a youth. At the age of 6, Donte was run over by a car after darting into the middle of the street after a ball. For the next three months, Donte's mother, Deborah, carted her son around their Cleveland neighborhood in a wagon. Donte, who suffered multiple fractures to both legs, was forced to wear a body cast and doctors cautioned Deborah that her son might not be able to walk normally again. Obviously, Donte has since proved the doctors wrong.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the third of three 6th-round (206th overall) draft choices by SF in 2010.

// GOLDMINE

- Kyle's father, Kenny, is a former major league outfielder and the current general manager of the Chicago White Sox, a title he has held for 10 years. "It's been a great opportunity and an advantage to be around some pros and the best guys in the league growing up." It was an opportunity Kyle learned that very few other children get the chance to see. He saw firsthand what it took to be a professional athlete and believes that experience will help him in his current career.
- Kyle was selected in the 47th round of the 2006 MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox right out of high school.
- People doubted Kyle's ability growing up because of his size. "People telling me that I wouldn't make it fueled me. That's been the biggest motivating force that I've had."

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (56th overall) draft choice by Cin. in the 2004 NFL Draft...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by Min. on 2/29/08...Released by Min. on 7/28/11...Signed by SF on 8/3/11.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: Walter Payton Man of the Year

2006: All-Joe Team

// GOLDMINE

- Madieu joined elite company among his NFL peers by earning the 2010 Walter Payton Man of the Year award for his service to community, both in the U.S. and overseas. Among his efforts included serving as the Vikings 2009 spokesman for United Way, working with Twin Cities youth through his Dieu's Crew program and being recognized by the University of Maryland as a Distinguished Alumni by the School of Public Health in spring of 2009. His Madieu Williams Foundation works with kids to encourage a healthy lifestyle and education. After signing a free agent contract with Vikings, Madieu honored his commitment to build a playground in Cincinnati during spring of 2008, partnering with the non-profit Kaboom! on the project. He has a website associated with his foundation- www.madieuwilliams.org.
- Madieu donated $2 million to the University of Maryland to create the Madieu Williams Center for Global Health Initiatives. Its purpose is to research and implement new ways to improve education and health care in impoverished nations such as Sierra Leone.
- Madieu spent his childhood in Sierra Leone before moving to the United States at the age of 9 and settling with family in Maryland. While in his native country, his mother, a nurse, would take him on her rounds through hospital wards. It was there where he learned the importance of giving. The Williams were poor, themselves, living in a ramshackle, two-story building that seemed forever in danger of collapse, but Madieu's mother gave to others whatever she could. He has since donated money to open a school outside of Sierra Leone's capital city of Freetown, in a district where there had been none, and he still returns annually to Sierra Leone to monitor the progress of his programs.

| LINEBACKER

6-1 | 240 | MISSISSIPPI | 5TH YEAR | BORN 1.25.85 | BRUCETON, TN
ACQUIRED D-1A IN '07 | CENTRAL HS, BRUCETON, TN

In a limited amount of time Patrick Willis has established himself as a household name and an annual candidate for NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors with superman-like performances week-in and week-out, having led the NFL in tackles in two of his first four NFL seasons. As the 11th-overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Willis made an immediate impact as a rookie, earning All-Pro, Pro Bowl and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. He kept the accolades flowing by earning Pro Bowl recognition in 2008, 2009 and 2010. Willis joined S Ronnie Lott as the only 49ers players to earn Pro Bowl honors in each of their first four seasons. The leader of the 49ers defense was rewarded with a lucrative five-year contract extension that will keep him in the Bay Area through 2016.

// GOLDMINE

- In 2007 and 2009, Patrick was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Frank is one of two players in franchise history to win the award twice (RB Frank Gore).
- Tragedy struck Patrick's family right before his senior year at Ole Miss. His brother, Detris, drowned in a swimming hole when he was just 17 years old. Detris was a talented FB/LB who was heading into his senior year at Central High School and was a Division I-A prospect. In memory of his late brother, Patrick had the Superman shield tattooed on his chest. "We both loved Superman growing up. We were strong no matter what, but also had our weaknesses." Below Patrick's Superman tattoo reads, "My brother shall rise again." "I believe someday when my time on earth is over, I'll see him again."
- Patrick has a variety of tattoos, with each carrying its own special meaning. One of his most inspirational tattoos is the word 'Believe' on his forearm. "When a person says 'I think,' I feel that leaves room for doubt. If I want to do something, I want to 'believe' I can do it, not just think." Patrick has three tear drop tattoos, which signify three significant people that have passed away in his life – his grandfather, uncle and brother.
- One of Patrick's biggest influences growing up was his uncle, Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light-heavyweight boxer from 1989-2000 and competed in 33 pro fights. Patrick looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.
- Patrick and his siblings were separated from his biological father when he was 16. He moved in with his guardians, the Finleys, who were in their 20's when they took in Patrick and his three other siblings. Chris Finley was a math teacher and Patrick's basketball coach in high school. Julie Finley taught 5th grade. He refers to Chris and Julie as mom and dad.
- One would think growing up in a small town of 1,500 people wouldn't provide much of a fan spotlight for young athletes. However, this was not the case for Patrick during his childhood in Bruceton, TN. "Growing up in such a small town, sports would turn into these big events, whether it was football, baseball or basketball. Everybody would come out to see you play."
- Competition is what has driven Patrick throughout his life. "I love to compete, no matter what sport it is. Basketball, baseball, football, golf, bowling, fishing, whatever. Basketball was my first love…I played everything, guard, forward, center. In baseball, I played everything too, except for catcher." Patrick set the record for most home runs in Little League. He started playing golf with his dad, Chris Finley, when he was 16. "Even though I'm not too good, I love to compete."

- Patrick was a standout basketball player at Central High School, where he averaged close to 20 points and 10 rebounds per game throughout his career. An all-district, all-region and All-West Tennessee selection, Patrick played every position on the court and was named the district's Most Valuable Player. It wasn't on the blacktop where he crafted his game, but rather on the dirt in front of his house. At the age of 7, Patrick, his brother and his dad constructed a basketball hoop from cedar planks. For the next 10 years, one could often find Patrick and his family playing toe-to-toe on that very same hoop. "That's what kept me busy. We didn't have sport clubs, malls or movie theatres nearby. All we had was each other."
- Patrick believes several of the jobs he held as a youth have made him into the hard-working person he is today. At the ripe age of 10, Patrick worked in a cotton field to help financially support his family. "My grandmother got me a job chopping cotton. I got $110 a week for chopping the weeds around the cotton so it could grow." Patrick's next job was in masonry, where he would mix mortar for the building of structures. He then worked alongside his father, who was a logger. "I would use a chainsaw and cut the limbs off. It was a pretty crazy job, I would get cut up all over." When Patrick was a sophomore and junior in high school, he would perform general maintenance around the school, which included waxing all the floors on the property.
- A fan of all different genres of music, Patrick would like to belt out his own tunes in his very own music studio one day. "I like to sing and can probably carry a tune here or there, but it's not like I'm any good. When I buy a house though, I'm going to put a music studio in it." Patrick enjoys listening to R&B, rap, country and even some oldies. Some of his favorites are Marvin Gaye, Otis Redding and the Temptations.
- Armed with a degree in criminal justice, Patrick envisions a future in law enforcement. "Whether it be a detective or a member of the secret service or FBI, I'm very interested in the field." Patrick enjoyed watching episodes of "Columbo" and "Matlock" as a youngster. His favorite television programs now are "CSI: Crime Scene Investigation" and "Cold Case."

GAME 1

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12
SEATTLE 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
QWEST FIELD

The 49ers traveled to Seattle with high expectations for their opening game of the 2010 season, only to come up with more questions than answers as they fell to their division rival, the Seattle Seahawks. The 49ers started off in commanding fashion with a defensive unit that appeared to set the tone of the game with a CB Nate Clements interception off a Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck pass intended for TE John Carlson on the first play of the game. With the defense making a statement to start the season, the 49ers offense looked to contribute on their side of the ball, opening their campaign by charging down the field on their first drive. The 49ers fea–tured two rookie starters on the offensive line (T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati) in the season opener for only the 4th time in franchise history, and the first time since 1958. After WR Josh Morgan was unable to come down with both feet in the end zone on a spectacular throw by QB Alex Smith on the first drive of the game, the 49ers were forced to settle for 3 points. With a field goal by 49ers K Joe Nedney with 4:35 left to go in the first quarter, the 49ers were on the board first. It had been the first time since 2006 that the 49ers scored on their first possession of the season, the last being a 31–yd. TD pass from Smith to TE Vernon Davis at Arz. (9/10/06). The 49ers offense was able to consistently move the ball down the field in the first half, holding possession for 12:46 in the first quarter, compared to 2:14 by the Seahawks offense. However their attention to detail lacked as they were unsuccessful when it came to getting into the end zone. The 49ers would get another strong chance to put it in for 6 on a 3rd–and–2 situation that left FB Moran Norris a yard shy as he rushed for a 1–yd. gain before getting stopped at the 1. After the Seattle stop and a 5–yd. penalty assessed to Smith for a delay of game, Nedney put it through the uprights from 23 yds. out for 3 points, his second FG of the game. That would be all the scoring the Seahawks would allow from the 49ers for the rest of the day. After starting the game up 6–0, the 49ers would have the momen–tum shift to the home team. On the very next drive, the Seahawks were able to score a touchdown off of a 1–yd. scramble by QB Matt Hasselbeck. The scramble was set up by a 35–yd. pass from Hasselbeck to WR Mike Williams. Less than 50 seconds later, offensive miscues by Smith and WR Michael Crabtree led to an interception by Seattle, and with 1:33 left to go in the half, Hasselbeck connected with WR Deon Butler on a 13–yd. pass for a touchdown. 49ers miscues and mistakes would cost them 17 more points by the Seahawks in the second half with a final score of 31–6.

GAME 2

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20
NEW ORLEANS 25, SAN FRANCISCO 22
CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers welcomed in the visiting defending Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints and kicked off their 2010 home opener in front of a sold out Monday Night Football crowd at Candlestick Park. The energy and atmosphere set the tone for a high intensity game as the 49ers looked to come out and rebound after their tough loss in week one to their division rival Seattle. The 49ers elected to receive the opening kickoff, after the Saints deferred, and looked to strike first. It was the same excitement and setting that might have caused a bit of nerves for the 49ers offense to have a miscue as C David Baas snapped the ball over QB Alex Smith's head on the third play of the game and into the end zone. Smith's awareness and quick thinking caused him to bat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety rather than potentially giving up 6 points to the Saints to start the game. Already having 2 points on the board, the Saints looked to capitalize on an opportunity and found one in RB Reggie Bush. After starting at San Francisco's 46–yd line, QB Drew Brees found options in his offense and successfully marched down the field, topping it off with a 6–yd. pass to Bush for the touchdown. After a 9–0 lead for New Orleans to start the game, the 49ers offense and defense put their nerves in check and went to work. Starting at their own 18 yd. line with 35 seconds left to go in the first quarter, Smith manufactured an 82–yd. touchdown drive after a 22–yd. reception by TE Delanie Walker set up a short 12–yd. swing pass to RB Frank Gore, who was able to get into the corner of the end zone for 6. K Joe Nedney would add the extra point making the score 9–7 Saints. Gore finished the day with a team–high 7 recepts. for 56 yds. "We will stop Drew Brees" is what head coach Mike Singletary exclaimed earlier in the week and that is exactly what the 49ers defense did for the rest of the first half and most of the third quarter. After a 3–and–out with 10:38 left to go in the 3rd quarter, Smith stepped in and simply executed. He connected on one pass to WR Michael Crabtree for 32 yds. and then got down to the Saints 9–yd. line on another deep throw to TE Vernon Davis for 41 yds. This set up rookie RB Anthony Dixon's first career carry and TD from 2 yds. out, marking the first time a RB in the NFL scored a TD on his first career carry since Jacksonville Jaguars RB Montell Owens vs. Hou. (9/28/08). The last 49er to score a TD on his first career carry was WR Terrell Owens at StL (10/25/98). The Saints answered right back as they were able to put together a 61–yd. drive that was marked by a 3–yd. pass by Brees to WR David Thomas for a TD. After a game that saw both teams battle back and forth, it all came down to the fourth quarter. The Saints started out the quarter with a 46–yd. FG by K Garrett Hartley to put them up 19–14. Hartley hit another 19–yd. FG with 2:17 left to go in the game following a muffed punt by CB Phillip Adams deep in 49ers territory. With the score 22–14 in favor of the Saints, the 49ers offense put together its most electrifying drive of the season. Smith hit 4 different receivers for 51 yards and scrambled two times for 24 yds. With 1:23 left to go in the game, Gore put his head down and ran up the middle for a 7–yd. TD to make the score 20–22 in favor of the Saints, marking only the second time in his career that he has had a rushing TD and a receiving TD in the same game. After the 2–yd. Davis catch for 2–pt. conversion was initially ruled no good, it was overturned and tied the game. With 1:19 remaining in the game, the Saints drove down the field and set up the game–winning 37–yd. FG by Hartley as time expired.

GAME 3

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
KANSAS CITY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 10
ARROWHEAD STADIUM

The 0–2 San Francisco 49ers traveled to the Midwest to face the 2–0 Kansas City Chiefs in what would be the team's first of four regular season contests against an AFC opponent, in 2010. After a devastating loss to the defending Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints a week prior, the 49ers were looking to regroup and put a halt to their two game skid. The Chiefs won the toss and with home field advantage, elected to receive. It would prove to be of little advantage as both teams would trade downs and go scoreless throughout the first quarter of play. The 49ers defense made the first game–changing play of the game as CB Shawntae Spencer intercepted a QB Matt Cassel pass intended for Chiefs WR Dwayne Bowe at the SF 24–yd. line with 12:32 left to play in the 2nd qtr. The interception would prove to be a wasted opportunity after QB Alex Smith's pass, intended for WR Michael Crabtree, would be intercepted three plays later by Chiefs CB Brandon Flowers at the SF 31–yd. line. The Chiefs would capitalize on the very next play with a 31–yd. TD pass by Cassel to WR Dexter McCluster to give Kansas City the early 7–0 lead. The 49ers would get the ball back and drive 45 yds. down field before settling for a K Joe Nedney 51–yd. FG, marking his 16th career FG from 50+ and 9th as a member of the 49ers. The Chiefs would score one more time before the end of the 1st half, driving 44 yds. down field to set up a 32–yd. FG by K Ryan Succop as time expired. Making his NFL debut, rookie WR Kyle Williams took the opening kick of the 2nd half to the SF 35–yd. line. A sack by Tamba Hali on 1st down, one of his three on the day, forced the 49ers into a third and long situation two plays later. Smith's 19–yd. completion to WR Dominique Zeigler provided San Francisco a new set of downs, but the 49ers couldn't overcome a 15–yd. unnecessary roughness penalty by rookie T Anthony Davis two plays later and were forced to punt. The Chiefs took advantage of the 49er miscues with 9:37 left to go in the 3rd qtr. as Cassel threw a deep pass over the middle to Bowe for a 45–yd. TD. The Chiefs offense exposed the 49er defense for a third time with 1:41 left to go in the 3rd qtr. when TE Tony Moeaki made a spectacular one–handed grab in the end zone for 6. RB Thomas Jones would add a final TD in the 4th qtr off of a 3–yd. run. With the opportunity of a comeback all but gone, Smith and the 49ers offense were able to put a TD on the board with time winding down as WR Josh Morgan caught a 12–yd. TD pass in the end zone. All was not lost on the day for the 49ers offense as RB Frank Gore registered 9 recepts. for a career–high 102 yds., marking the first 100–yd. receiving game of his career.

GAME 4

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3
ATLANTA 16, SAN FRANCISCO 14
GEORGIA DOME

The winless 49ers traveled to the Georgia Dome to face the Atlanta Falcons, looking to avenge the home loss in 2009, and more importantly, earn their first win of the 2010 season. Yet, San Francisco's inability to "finish" as well as costly turnovers at key moments of the game would eventually lead to another loss as the Falcons were able to edge the 49ers, 16–14, off of a game winning K Matt Bryant 43–yd. FG. The Falcons started the game with the ball and were forced to punt after 6 plays. With a new offensive coordinator in Mike Johnson, the 49er offense immediately made an impact on its opening drive. QB Alex Smith put together a 10–play drive, starting at the SF 12–yd. line that included positive gains by five different players. After marching 76 yds. down field to the ATL 12–yd. line, Smith took a shotgun pass and connected with TE Vernon Davis for the TD. The play would initially be called down at the 1–yd. line, but after a head coach Mike Singletary challenge, the play would be reversed for 6 points. K Joe Nedney added the extra point and put the 49ers up 7–0. With the momentum in favor of the visiting team, the 49ers forced the Falcons to go 3–and–out back at their own 12–yd. line. Looking to capitalize off of the short field, the 49ers found an opportunity in the form of WR Dominique Zeigler and rookie S Taylor Mays. Zeigler blocked a P Michael Koenen punt, which was then recovered by Mays, who with a great sense of awareness and athleticism, tip toed in the back of the end zone for the TD off of the deflection. One more Nedney PAT gave the 49ers a 14–0 lead. On the first play of the Falcons subsequent drive, 49ers LB Parys Haralson sacked QB Matt Ryan for a 5–yd. loss. It would be one of two sacks for Haralson on the day, which would mark his first two sack performance since 9/7/08 vs. Arz. The Falcons eventually got on the board at the start of the 2nd qtr. as Ryan connected with WR Harry Douglas on an 8–yd. rec. for a TD. Following a six–play 49ers drive that stalled out, the Falcons offense once again threatened to score after obtaining good field position near mid field following a 19–yd. punt return by WR Eric Weems. On a 3rd and long play from the SF 18, 49ers CB Shawntae Spencer stepped up and intercepted a Ryan pass that was intended for TE Tony Gonzalez at the 6–yd. line. The INT would not only mark his 2nd INT of the season, but gave him an INT in consecutive weeks for the first time in his career. Unfortunately for the 49ers, Ryan would not be the only one intercepted this game as Smith was picked off twice, once at the end of the 2nd qtr. and another at the beginning of the 3rd, after driving into Falcons territory on both drives. With fumbles and INTs plaguing both teams, it would come down to the late game heroics that would seal the deal for the home team. Bryant would connect on 3 FGs throughout the game, including a game winning 43–yd. FG as time expired. What was more deflating for the 49ers was not that he converted the FG, but how it was set up following a 49ers fumble by CB Nate Clements, who had just intercepted a Ryan pass intended for Gonzalez. After Clements was trying to take the pick for six, Falcons WR Roddy White chased down Clements and stripped the ball at the ATL 7–yd. line. The Falcons would recover and drive down the field to set up Bryant's game winner.

GAME 5

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10
PHILADELPHIA 27, SAN FRANCISCO 24
CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers welcomed in the Philadelphia Eagles on NBC's Sunday Night Football at Candlestick Park, but ultimately, competed with themselves as mistakes and turnovers once again cost them a football game. Head Coach Mike Singletary would go on to say that "I think the best team we've played so far is the San Francisco 49ers." The 49ers committed 5 turnovers, including one on the final offensive drive. It was the 2nd primetime contest in as many home games on the 2010 season and San Francisco quickly got to work, and once again, put together a successful opening drive. QB Alex Smith orchestrated an 11–play, 51–yd. drive that was topped off with a 7–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree for the score. It would be a precursor to Crabtree's night as he would have a career game, posting 9 recepts. for 105 yds., both career highs. Minus Crabtree's TD in the first qtr., Philadelphia's offense controlled much of the first half as QB Kevin Kolb spread the ball throughout the field. With 2:23 left to go in the 1st qtr., Kolb connected on an 8–yd. TD pass to TE Brent Celek and seemed to never look back. The 49ers offense tried numerous times to help themselves, but turnovers would plague them throughout the night. With 23 seconds left to go in the 1st qtr., RB Frank Gore would have one of his two fumbles on the night. Both fumbles would be lost to Philadelphia and his first would lead to a 33–yd. FG by K David Akers, giving the Eagles a 10–3 lead. The 49ers offense tried to bounce back, but a tough Philadelphia defense wasn't going to quit as Smith would be picked off by CB David Patterson on a deep ball intended for WR Ted Ginn early in the 2nd qtr.. Smith, like Gore, would also have multiple turnovers on the night (3). Just after the two–minute warning, Eagles RB LeSean McCoy sprang loose for a 29–yd. TD run and brrought the score to 17–7 in favor of the visiting team. The 49ers had a bit of an answer just before the half as K Joe Nedney hit a 50–yd. FG to make the score 17–10 Eagles. Nedney's kick marked his 17th career FG from 50+ and 10th as a member of the 49ers. After both teams traded possessions and went scoreless throughout the 3rd qtr., The 49ers would mount one great effort in the 4th qtr, but not before a costly Smith fumble at the Phi. 48–yd. line was eventually picked up by Eagles S Quintin Mikell and taken all the way back for 6. After mistakes appeared to do in the 49ers starting QB, he stepped up and answered the call, connecting with TE Vernon Davis for the 7–yd. TD strike with 7:40 left in the game. The 49ers defense also stepped up and helped their chances as they forced Philadelphia to settle for a 45–yd. FG on the very next drive. Down by 10 points, WR Ted Ginn took the subsequent kickoff 61 yds. to give the 49ers prime field position at the PHI 36–yd. line. With the momentum on their side and coming off a TD drive, Smith put together another successful drive as he eventually found Gore on a 1–yd. TD throw to cut the Eagles lead to 27–24. The 49ers defense would come in and do its part, causing the Eagles to go 3–and–out to set up a game–winning scenario. With 1:28 left to go in the game, the 49ers would have one last chance to earn their first win of the season. After a pass completion to WR Josh Morgan would net them –3 yds., Smith went no–huddle and fired a 27–yd. strike deep down the middle to Davis who would be brought down at the PHI 44. That would prove to be it for the 49ers. After two more incomplete passes, Smith would drop back and appear to be hit as he threw a pass intended for Crabtree. The pass would be intercepted by Eagles CB Trevard Lindley and seal the game, 27–24, in favor of Philadelphia.

GAME 6

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 17
SAN FRANCISCO 17, OAKLAND 9
CANDLESTICK PARK

With the first afternoon contest at Candlestick Park of the 2010 season, the 49ers welcomed in their cross–bay rival, the Oakland Raiders. On imperfect conditions with gray skies and rain, San Francisco found it to be the perfect setting to earn its first win of the year, beating the silver and black, 17–9. After allowing the Raiders to march down the field on the opening drive, the 49ers defense was able to make a stand and hold Oak. to a 27–yd. FG by K Sebastian Janikowski to start the game. It would be one of many defensive stops and would set the tone for 2 turnovers on the afternoon. The 49ers defense was also able to hold Oak. to 179 yds. of total offense. The first of 2 Oak. turnovers would come with 11:21 left to go in the first half when 49ers LB Manny Lawson made a spectacular leap and grab to pick off a Oak. QB Jason Campbell pass for an INT at the SF 43–yd. line. It was Lawson's 2nd career INT and first since he picked off Rams QB Marc Bulger at StL (11/26/06). The 49ers offense was unable to capitalize on the opportunity and the two teams would trade possessions for much of the 1st and 2nd qtrs., until with 11 seconds to go in the half, K Joe Nedney would nail a 25–yd. FG to get the home team on the board and bring the score to 6–3 in favor of the Raiders. After a quiet first half that saw a combined 9 pts. by both teams, San Francisco came out ready to capture its first vic–tory of the year. QB Alex Smith began firing on all cylinders late in the 3rd qtr., as he threw a laser deep down the middle of the field to WR Michael Crabtree for a 32–yd. TD pass. The 13–play drive stretched 91 yds. and would take 8:11 off the clock, allowing the 49ers to not only control the clock, but the game as well. With San Francisco leading 10–6 heading into the 4th qtr., the team looked to pile on to its lead. With 7:21 left to go in the game, Smith found TE Vernon Davis for a 17–yd. TD pass. It marked the 3rd consecutive week the two had connected for a TD. The 49ers ground game would also play a crucial role in the win as RB Frank Gore would have another outstanding day as he once again eclipsed the 100–yd. pla–teau for the 2nd time this season, rushing for 149 yds. on 25 carries. With his performance, Gore moved into 3rd place on the 49ers all–time list for most rushing yds. with 6,032, passing RB Ken Willard (5,930). Though the 49ers air and ground game would set the pace, it was the defense that ul–timately sealed the win. Late in the 4th qtr., LB Takeo Spikes registered his first INT of the season by picking off Campbell deep in Oak. territory. From there, the 49ers were able to run out the clock and earn the 17–9 win. The 49ers defense held the Raiders to a QB rating of 10.7, the lowest oppos–ing QB rating since 10/1/72 at NO (QB Archie Manning – 8.7 QB rating).

GAME 7

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24
CAROLINA 23, SAN FRANCISCO 20
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM

The 49ers started the first leg of a 10–day road trip with a stop in Charlotte, N.C., to face the NFC East Carolina Panthers in a Week 7 match–up. The 49ers offense started off as they had hoped and would total 282 yds. on the day, but once again, costly turnovers late in the game would ultimately cause San Francisco to fall short, as they would lose, 20–23. With the home team being forced to punt after only 5 plays, the 49ers wasted no time get–ting right to work offensively. RB Frank Gore would lead the charge with a 20–yd. run that ignited the 49ers offense. From there, QB Alex Smith would handle the rest as he would hook up with TE Vernon Davis twice on the drive, first, on a 53–yd. pass that would result in the longest pass play of the season. After the initial strike to Davis, Smith would culminate the 4–play drive with a 1–yd. TD pass to Davis on the very next play. It marked the 4th consecutive game the duo has connected for a TD, tying Davis' career–high for most consecutive games with a TD. The Panthers however, would turn it into a contest and marched down the field on the very next drive. With the Panthers rallying, the 49ers defense would be presented with an early game test of stopping a dual threat in RBs Jonathan Stewart and DeAngelo Wil–liams. They would pass their challenge and hold Carolina to a 47–yd. John Kasay FG that set the score for the 1st qtr. at 7–3 in favor of the visiting team. The game would ultimately be a test of strength for both teams as they battled back and forth for much of the afternoon. With the 49ers looking to create opportunities, they found one in their defense and CB Nate Clements as he notched his 2nd FF of the season and 19th of his career with 12:43 left to go in the 2nd qtr. when he stripped Williams. The loose ball was recovered by LB Parys Haralson, which marked Haralson's 2nd FR of the season and 4th of his career. The 49ers capitalized on the Panthers turnover as K Joe Nedney added 3 pts. off of a 24–yd. FG with 8:46 left to go in the half. The lead would prove short lived as Panthers QB Matt Moore marched his team down the field on the next drive. He would find WR David Gettis for an 18–yd. TD pass. Gettis proved to be a problem all afternoon for the 49ers de–fense as he racked up 125 yds. receiving. With the score 10–10 at halftime, the 49ers looked to correct their mistakes and notch a win. It proved to be a lot easier said than done as early in the 3rd qtr., the 49ers offense would take a critical blow as QB Alex Smith was sacked by DE Charles Johnson. Smith would suffer a sprained shoulder on the play and did not return. The Panthers capitalized on the 49ers misfortune and took the lead for the first time in the game off of a Kasay 55–yd. FG. With their starting QB out, the 49ers defense left it up to themselves in order to make plays and secure a win. It would start with CB Shawntae Spencer, who knocked the ball loose from WR Steve Smith and recovered the fumble with 4:54 left to go in the 3rd qtr., marking his first FF and FR of the season. With the score 13–10 in favor of the Panthers, the 49ers once again relied on a successful 4th qtr. in order to try and earn a win. Right away, San Francisco made a charge with Nedney nailing a 38–yd. FG to tie the game at 13 a piece. The 49ers defense used the momentum and found a "ray of light" in DT Ray McDonald as he registered his first career INT and returned it 31 yds. for a TD off of a Moore pass intended for RB Jonathan Stewart. It marked McDonald's 2nd career TD [11–yd. fumble return for TD vs. StL (10/4/09)], which was also the 49ers last defensive TD. With the 49ers leading 20–13, a team effort would be needed to earn the win. The 49ers ultimately could not avoid the late game mistakes however, as they committed six 4th qtr. penalties and al–lowed the Panthers to march down the field with 1:08 left in the game, set–ting up a game–winning 37–yd. FG by Kasay to seal it for the home team.

GAME 8

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31
SAN FRANCISCO 24, DENVER 16
WEMBLEY STADIUM

The 49ers traveled to London, U.K. and Wembley Stadium in a Week 8 matchup to play host to the visiting Denver Broncos in the NFL's 2010 International Series. It was the first time the 49ers had been in London since 1992, when they took on the Washington Redskins in a preseason match, and the first time they had been out of the country since 2005, when they traveled to Mexico City in a game vs. the Arizona Cardinals. With the 4th NFL game in London in as many years, the 49ers and Broncos showcased their talents on an international stage and treated the fans at Wembley Stadium to an offensive display, combining for 737 yds. of total offense. Having traveled "across the pond" immediately following their week 7 matchup at Car., the 49ers used the extra days as a way to adjust to the time difference. With a productive week of practice and the sights and sounds of London, the 49ers, in front of a crowd mostly dressed in red and gold, would go to work and find success in the most unlikeliest of places. One of those places would be in starting QB Troy Smith, who earned the start after QB Alex Smith was injured early in the 3rd qtr. a week prior against the Panthers. Smith, in his first start since 12/30/07, capitalized on the opportunity and led his team to victory as he completed 12 of 19 passes for 196 yds. and 1 TD, his first TD pass since 11/9/08 vs. Hou. (14–yd. pass to TE Todd Heap). Along with his 196 passing yds., Smith also registered a 1–yd. TD run. Smith and the 49ers combined for 339 total yds. on the day and earned their 2nd win of the season, beating the Broncos 24–16. It would be a slow start to the game, which saw a total of only 3 points in the first half – a 34–yd. FG by K Joe Nedney. With both teams returning from halftime eager to ignite their offense, Denver would find the first opportunity, exposing the 49er defense early in the 3rd qtr. as QB Kyle Orton found WR Brandon Lloyd deep down the middle for a 71–yd. completion. QB Tim Tebow entered the game and rushed for a 1–yd. TD run that put the visitors up 7–3 through the first 3 qtrs. It would take all 4 qtrs. to finally get the offense going, but the 49ers eventually would show up after Broncos K Matt Prater would send a 32–yd. FG through the uprights. With the score 10–3 Broncos, Smith took it upon himself to lead his team and relied upon TE Delanie Walker for help. The two combined for 65 yds. on the following drive, including a 38–yd. strike to Walker from Smith deep down the right side. It was followed by a 1–yd. TD run by Smith to begin a 21 pt. 4th qtr. for the 49ers. Walker registered 85 rec. yds. on the day, establishing a new career high. After a slow start, Smith was able to find a groove and continued to roll on the next drive, finding WR Michael Crabtree deep down the left side for a 28–yd. TD pass. It marked Crabtree's 3rd TD of the season. With the offense reeling, the 49ers defense used the momentum to create plays for themselves. LB Manny Lawson came up big on the very next Broncos drive as he stripped Orton for his 2nd FF of the season and 8th of his career. The loose ball was scooped up by LB Takeo Spikes for his first FR of the season and 17th of his career. Spikes returned the ball 8 yds. to the Den. 18–yd. line and the takeaway led to a 3–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore, giving the 49ers a 24–10 lead late in the 4th qtr. Gore continued to be a fixture of the 49ers offensive game plan as he rushed for 118 yds. and 1 TD on 29 carries. It marked his 3rd consecutive 100–yd. performance and first since he did it 11/12/06 (159 yds. at Det.), 11/19/06 (212 yds. vs. Sea.) and 11/26/06 (134 yds. at StL). Denver however, would not give up. Down but not out, they put together a successful drive on the very next series as Lloyd would catch his second TD of the game, a 1–yd. rec. from Orton to bring the score to 24–16 after K Matt Prater would miss the extra point. With the 49ers going 3–and–out on the following drive, the Broncos would have one last chance to even the score and force overtime. The 49ers defense however had other thoughts as with 45 seconds left in the game, CB Shawntae Spencer took it upon himself to close the game once and for all, picking off an Orton pass deep down the left side that was intended for WR Jabar Gaffney to seal the win for the 49ers.

GAME 9

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 14
SAN FRANCISCO 23, ST. LOUIS 20 (OT)
CANDLESTICK PARK

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back–to–back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense. All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29–yd. game winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42–yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32–yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65–yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1–yd. line, setting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26–yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5–yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13–yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47–yd. line. Smith then connected on back–to–back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16–yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33–yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game winning FG.

GAME 10

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21
TAMPA BAY 21, SAN FRANCISCO 0
CANDLESTICK PARK

Week 11 in the NFL proved to be a tough match up for the San Francisco 49ers, who, coming off back–to–back wins for the first time in 2010, showed up to Candlestick Park and were shut out by the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers. It was the first time since 10/9/77 that the 49ers were shutout at home as they fell to the Bucs, 21–0. On top of the inability to produce points was the amount of mistakes that the 49ers committed, losing the turnover battle to Tampa, which included 1 fumble and 1 INT. The 49ers also gave up 299 yds. of total offense compared to the only 189 yds. of total offense that they were able to put up. After a silent 1st qtr. that saw both teams trading downs, Bucs RB Carnell Wil–liams rushed for a 6–yd. TD that put the Bucs on the board and gave them the lead with 9:06 left to go in the first half. QB Troy Smith, who was com–ing off of a career–high 356–yd. passing day vs. StL in week 10, could only produce 148 passing yds. and had trouble finding open receivers throughout the day. After TB's initial score, the 49ers appeared to get in a groove as Smith hit WR Michael Crabtree down the left side for a 15–yd. gain, but the drive was halted after short yardage gains proved to be the 49ers story all afternoon. The Bucs capitalized on missed tackles and miscommunication by the 49ers defense, adding to their score late in the 3rd qtr. when QB Josh Freeman hit WR Mike Williams for an 8–yd. TD pass. The 49ers door was shut with 8:23 left to go in the 4th qtr. as Smith dropped back and threw an intended pass to WR Josh Morgan, only to have it intercepted by CB Ronde Barber. The INT set up a successful drive for TB that was capped off by a 1–yd. pass by Free–man to LT Donald Penn to bring the game to 21–0 and conclude the scor–ing for Tampa. With the game seemingly out of reach, SF didn't give up and tried to put something together as Smith had his longest pass completion of the day, connecting with WR Josh Morgan on a 23–yd. throw. The drive, like many on the afternoon, produced no results. Sacks (6 for 30 yds. on Smith) and incompletions could not elude the 49ers offense as TB controlled much of the game and fittingly kneeled it on the final play, sealing the fate for the 49ers.

GAME 11

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29
SAN FRANCISCO 27, ARIZONA 6
UNIVERISTY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

Monday Night Football would once again set the stage for an electrifying performance by the San Francisco 49ers as they went into the University of Phoenix Stadium and beat their division rivals, the Arizona Cardinals, 27–6. With each team sitting at 3–7 heading into the matchup, it was a must win for both teams in order to save their seasons. Having swept the Cardinals in 2009, the 49ers looked to extend their streak and did so, executing an offensive game plan that pounded the ball running throughout the day. San Francisco wasted no time and began pouring it on, totaling 261 yds. rushing on 47 carries, the most by the 49ers since 11/19/06 vs. Sea. (262 yds. rushing). Most of the yards would come from an unlikely source in RB Brian Westbrook. Westbrook entered the game after RB Frank Gore was injured early in the 1st qtr., and went on to dominate the Cardinal defense, totaling 136 yds. and 1 TD on 23 carries. With a physicality that could not be matched, the 49ers had their way with the Cardinals on both sides of the ball as they pressured QB Derek Anderson, forcing him into 1 INT and 1 FF, as well as sacking him once. Momentum on both sides of the ball allowed San Francisco to capitalize on opportunities. Those opportunities began after NT Aubrayo Franklin scooped up his first career FR as Cardinals RB Beanie Wells bobbled an Anderson handoff on the 49ers first play on defense. Franklin's FR led to a 38–yd. strike from QB Troy Smith to WR Michael Crabtree on the very next play. The 49ers did not stop there as they scored 21 points in the first half, including a 1–yd. TD run by RB Anthony Dixon on the very next offensive series, and Westbrook's 8–yd. TD run to cap off the 2nd qtr. It marked the first time the 49ers scored at least 21 pts. in the first half since 11/16/08 vs. StL (35 first half points). Heading into the locker room at the half, the 49ers led the Cardinals by 15 points, only giving up 2 FGs by K Jay Feely (31 yds., 39 yds.). Arizona's inability to score was made difficult due to the fact that the 49ers defense allowed only 8 first downs, and once again did not allow a 100–yd. rusher. It marked the 17th straight game that the 49ers defense had not allowed a 100–yd. rusher and just the 4th time since 2000 that the 49ers defense allowed 8 first downs or fewer in a game [6 at StL (1/3/10), 8 vs. Chi. (9/7/03), vs. Chi. (12/17/00)]. Late in the 3rd qtr., with the score 24–6, the 49ers put the game out of reach for good as LB Takeo Spikes picked off an Anderson pass intended for WR Early Doucet. The INT gave Spikes his second INT of the season and 17th of his career, and set up the final scoring for the 49ers, a 26–yd. FG by K Shane Andrus. Andrus would register his first career made FG in the 1st qtr. as he connected on a 31–yd. FG. With the score 27–6 late in the 4th qtr., the 49ers chewed up the clock with the ground game, sealing the victory for the visitors. The 49ers defense held the Cardinals to only 13 yds. rushing on the night. It marked just the 4th time in franchise history that the defense held an opponent to 13 yds. rushing or less for an entire game.

GAME 12

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5
GREEN BAY 34, SAN FRANCISCO 16
LAMBEAU FIELD

The 49ers took their division hunt on the road Sunday as they faced frigid conditions and a tough test against the Green Bay Packers at the "Frozen Tundra" of Lambeau Field. With snow flurries and temperatures in the 20's at kickoff, both teams relied on minimizing mistakes and all of their weapons in order to earn a victory. Early success gave the 49ers the lead, but it ultimately proved to be false hope as the Packers outmatched and outplayed the visiting team, beating them 34–16. With the 49ers having success scoring on their first offensive possessions heading into the game, it didn't take long for San Francisco to get on the board, marching down the field on the opening series. QB Troy Smith, having won his last 3 of 4 games, set out to make a statement early, connecting with WR Michael Crabtree on the 3rd play of the game for a 39–yd. strike deep down the right side of the field. The reception ultimately led to a 44–yd. FG by newly acquired K Jeff Reed, who was 3 for 3 on FGs on the day. The lead provided the 49ers with a sense of confidence as the defense came in and went to work, preventing the Packers from getting into the end zone on their opening drive. The momentum swing really took a turn in favor of the 49ers, when Packers K Mason Crosby would miss a 29–yd. FG att., hitting the left upright. Coming off a drive where they held Green Bay to a missed FG, the 49ers defense came back out onto the field and continued their dominance as DT Justin Smith and DT Isaac Sopoaga sacked Rodgers, hindering the Packers offensive game plan. An aggressive play combined with 0 turnovers by the 49ers would hold Rodgers and the Packers scoreless throughout the 1st qtr. Smith continued to spread the field and relied on his main targets to test the Packers early, as on the first play of the second qtr., Smith connected with TE Vernon Davis for a 25–yd. strike to the GB 2–yd. line. The excellent field position however could not be taken advantage of as the tough Packers defense held the 49ers to yet another FG, a 26–yd. chip off the foot of Reed. The Packers offense eventually got things going mid–way through the 2nd qtr. as Rodgers connected with WR Greg Jennings for a 57–yd. TD to give the home team the lead. Three and outs for the 49ers proved to be costly as the Packers capitalized on San Francisco's missed opportunities. The very next Packers drive resulted in a 1–yd. TD run by RB John Kuhn and put the 49ers in a hole, 14–6. Feeling the pressure of an early deficit sparked something in the 49ers offense as they struck back on the very next drive with Smith taking just two plays to fire a deep 66–yd. TD pass to Davis for the score, bringing it to 13–14 to finish out the half. Though the 49ers tried to keep the game close throughout the first half, the Packers proved to be too much as the 2nd half started with a 61–yd. TD pass from Rodgers to Driver for their second hookup of the game. Reed connected on a 23–yd. FG on the ensuing drive to give the 49ers a score of 16–21, but FGs could not keep up with the high–octane offense. Rodgers cemented the victory for the Packers on the very next offensive drive as he and Jennings connected yet again for a 1–yd. TD pass. The 49ers played up to the level of one of the NFL's best offenses, including 0 turnovers through the first 3 qtrs., and prevented a single Packer from rushing over 100 yds. for the 18th straight game, but it just wasn't enough as a scoreless 4th qtr. by San Francisco, 2 more FGs by Crosby, and a late game INT by Smith sealed the win for the Packers, 34–16.

GAME 13

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12
SAN FRANCISCO 40, SEATTLE 21
CANDLESTICK PARK

With the holidays in full swing, the San Francisco 49ers opted for an early gift as they dominated the division leading Seattle Seahawks through 4 qtrs. of play. Having the chance to move within one game of the division lead, the 49ers established a plan and executed it to near perfection as they pounded the Seahawks and put up a season–high 40 points on their way to a 40–21 victory at a cool and cloudy Candlestick Park. The story of the day could be found not in a single player, but in the team as a whole, as the offense would put up 361 total yards combined with a defense that accounted for 5 turnovers, including 1 TD. Having been sidelined since week 8 at Car., QB Alex Smith earned the start and immediately took control of the game, posting a career–high 130.5 passer rating as he threw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs, routing the division opponent. On the first drive of the game, Smith began his offensive onslaught with one of his favorite targets, TE Vernon Davis. The "11–85 connection" started it off with a 22–yd. pass on the 3rd play of the game. Three plays later, Smith again found Davis, connecting on a short pass that went for a 42–yd. TD to get the 49ers on the board. After allowing QB Matt Hasselbeck to connect with WR Ruvell Martin for a short 11–yd. TD pass, the 49ers defense locked in and put the foot on the gas, never looking back. K Jeff Reed provided consistency to the 49ers scoring as he hit 4 FGs on the day, including a 33–yd FG following the Seahawks initial TD, to restore momentum for the home team. It was a performance they had been expecting the whole season and it finally became reality on the first Seattle series in the 2nd qtr. as LB Takeo Spikes picked off a Hasselbeck pass. The INT led to a Reed 44–yd. FG and ignited a 49ers defense that proved to be relentless throughout the afternoon. Following the INT, the Seattle offense took the field looking to find an answer, but once again fell victim to turnovers caused by the 49ers as LB Travis LaBoy notched a sack, FF and FR on Hasselbeck. The takeaway led to the 49ers second TD opportunity as Smith hit WR Josh Morgan for a 15–yd. score, giving the 49ers a 20–7 lead. Continuing to spread the field on the next offensive drive, Smith completed a short pass down the middle to RB Brian Westbrook, who took it all the way to the house for a 62–yd. TD. It would be Westbrook's longest play from scrimmage since 2006 and his longest career TD recept. Smith's ability to spread the love marked the first trio of 49ers teammates to register at least 70 yds. receiving in a game since 9/9/01 vs. Atl. (WR Terrell Owens – 93 yds., WR J.J. Stokes – 93 yds., and WR Tai Streets – 81 yds.). With the half coming to a close, S Reggie Smith gave Hasselbeck his 2nd INT of the day, picking off a pass intended for WR Deon Butler. The INT led to a 22–yd. FG by Reed to close out the first half. Having said throughout the entire week of practice that they would "step it up", the 49ers defense held true to their statements heading into the 2nd half. S Dashon Goldson began putting a stamp on the game on the 2nd play of the 3rd qtr. as he intercepted a Hasselbeck pass and returned it 39 yds. for his 1st career TD. The 49ers big play mentality continued to plague the Seahawks offense, and just as they took the field following their interception, CB Nate Clements was waiting. With Seattle threatening, Clements stepped up and picked off Hasselbeck in the back of the end zone. The Seahawks would narrow the score to 40–14 late in the 3rd qtr. after a 92–yd. kickoff return TD by Leon Washington, which was followed by another score in the final two minutes of the game. The 49ers, however, came away with the important 40–21 victory to keep their playoff hopes alive.

GAME 14

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 16
SAN DIEGO 34, SAN FRANCISCO 7
QUALCOMM STADIUM

Four days after the team made a divisional statement against Seattle, the San Francisco 49ers traveled to sunny San Diego for a primetime matchup against the 7–6 San Diego Chargers. Playoff implications rested in the balance for both teams of this matchup on the NFL Network's "Thursday Night Football." Yet, with the opportunity to take control of their postseason future, the 49ers crumbled under the pressure and fell to the Chargers, 34–7. Missed opportunities and a league leading defense were too much for the 49ers to handle as unfavor–able calls went against the visiting team throughout the night. A potential MVP candidate, Chargers QB Philip Rivers exposed the 49ers secondary from start to finish, and threw for 273 yds. On the 4th play of the game, he showed why he is one of the league's best and sent a deep throw down the right side of the field to WR Vincent Jackson, who made a leap–and–grab catch, then ran the ball in for a 58–yd. TD. The dual threat of Rivers and Jackson combined for 112 yds. and 3 TDs, providing a healthy foundation in the Chargers 34 points. Down 7–0, the 49ers tried to grab hold of an opportunity, but dropped passes and missed opportunities plagued San Francisco throughout the night. After going scoreless through the first qtr., QB Alex Smith took it upon himself to spark something. On 3rd and 7 at the Chargers 7–yd. line, Smith took a shotgun snap and ran it for a 7–yd. TD. The play was challenged with the Chargers claiming that the runner never broke the plane, and it was ultimately reversed, negating the score for the 49ers. After the initial opportunity for the 49ers was thwarted, the Chargers big–play offense shifted into the next gear and forced San Francisco to play catch up for the rest of the night. The Chargers defense would lock down any big openings for the 49ers receivers, as only one exceeded a long of more than 20 yds. (WR Josh Morgan notched his first career 100–yd. rec. game, register–ing 7 recepts. for a career–high 106 yds.). Combined with San Diego's balanced offense, the Chargers ability to find openings and mismatches wore down a deflated 49ers defense. San Francisco's lone score occurred in the 4th qtr. as the 49ers finally were able to move the chains down into San Diego territory and score off of a 3–yd. run by RB Brian Westbrook. The 4th qtr. score however was too little, too late, as time ran out and sealed the win for the home team.

GAME 15

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 26
ST. LOUIS 25, SAN FRANCISCO 17
EDWARD JONES DOME

Win or go home was the scenario that the San Francisco 49ers faced as they played their final road game of the 2010 season and the division leading, St. Louis Rams. With both teams deep in the playoff hunt, each needed a win to inch closer to the NFC West crown and a playoff berth. It was the Rams however, in front of their home crowd, that ultimately ended the 49ers 2010 playoff hopes as they pressured San Francisco into multiple mistakes and penalties on the afternoon to win 25–17 at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis. Backed by a solid rookie season, St. Louis QB Sam Bradford wasted no time testing San Francisco, marching his team down the field on the opening drive. Bradford and the Rams went 70 yds., setting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson. The afternoon got off to a shaky start for the 49ers as they were put into an early hole as things went from bad to worse on the 49ers second offensive possession. QB Troy Smith fumbled the snap and recovered it in the end zone for a Rams safety. Whether it was the pressure of the task at hand or the road game environment, mistakes and early jitters could not elude the 49ers and prevented them from getting anything going through the first quarter. The spark finally came for them early in the 2nd qtr. as WR Ted Ginn provided the momentum that San Francisco needed, taking a Rams punt all the way back for a 78–yd. TD return. With the score 9–7 in favor of the home team, the 49ers new life carried them into the end zone yet again on their very next drive. Smith, who earned the start late in the week for this contest, dropped back and hit WR Michael Crabtree in stride. Crabtree took the pass 60 yds. for a TD and gave the 49ers the lead. It marked Crabtree's longest recept. of his career and gave San Francisco a 14–12 lead into halftime. Heading into the 2nd half, the 49ers tried to maintain their lead and momentum, but with only one quarter of productive football to show, the offense flat–lined and a tough Rams defense held them to just 3 points in the second half. In a final effort, Head Coach Mike Singletary tried to pump some life into his offense by inserting QB Alex Smith with 9:30 left to go in the game. The late addition however provided no answer for the 49ers offense as both quarterbacks could only complete 17 of their 34 atts. on the afternoon and could not keep up with a Rams offense who repeatedly keyed in on holes throughout the 49ers secondary. The Rams put the 49ers in their rearview mirror in the 4th qtr., scoring 10 pts. to the 49ers three, ending San Francisco's chances. With an equal number of TDs between both teams, the game rested on a St. Louis offense that was able to convert positive yards into FGs as K Josh Brown scored 9 points and was a perfect 3 for 3 on the afternoon. St. Louis' ability to outlast the 49ers through 4 qtrs. of play ended the 49ers hopes of making noise in the postseason, in 2010.

GAME 16

SUNDAY, JANUARY 2
SAN FRANCISCO 38, ARIZONA 7
CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers welcomed in the Arizona Cardinals for the 2010 season finale on a cold and rainy Sunday afternoon at Candlestick Park. With both teams out of playoff contention, the Week 17 matchup between divisional foes was about playing for pride and ending the season on a positive note. San Francisco's offense put up 4 TDs combined with a defense that held Arizona to just 279 total yds., as the 49ers beat the Cardinals 38–7. With interim head coach Jim Tomsula leading the team, San Francisco rose to the challenge and put the pieces of success together from start to finish. It was 4 qtrs. of fast–paced, physical football and both sides of the ball capitalized on opportunities. 49ers QB Alex Smith led the charge and threw for 276 yds. and 2 TDs. Smith got things going with 4:37 left to go in the 1st qtr. as he dropped back and found WR Ted Ginn deep down the right side of the field for a 36–yd. TD strike. It marked Ginn's 1st receiving TD as a 49er, igniting a San Francisco offense that would total 362 yds. on the day. The 49ers maintained their focus as they moved the ball consistently against the Cardinals defense, San Francisco found its 2nd scoring opportunity on the foot of K Jeff Reed, who nailed a 39–yd. FG on the 2nd play of the 2nd qtr. The Cardinals had their own scoring opportunity as WR Larry Fitzgerald made a talented 10–yd. leap and grab for a TD. Fitzgerald's TD would halt both team's scoring, however, as they headed into the half at 10–7 in favor of the 49ers. Refocused and prepared to play the last 30 minutes of the season, the 49ers came out in the 2nd half and erupted. On the first offensive series, the 49ers made their first big play of the half as Smith dropped back and hit TE Vernon Davis on a short pass up the middle, which Davis ran with unmatched speed for a 59–yd. TD. The 49ers looked to leave a mark on their season and made the most of their offensive performance in the 2nd stanza as, on the next offensive series, RB Brian Westbrook had the first of his two rushing TDs on the afternoon, a 6–yd. run up the middle for the score. The TD was set up by a Smith–to–Davis pass yet again, a 20–yd. throw and catch. Quick with the turnaround, Westbrook didn't stay out of the end zone for long as LB Ahmad Brooks had his first career INT, picking off Cardinals QB John Skelton to set up another Westbrook 6–yd. TD run, which increased the 49ers lead to 31–7. Westbrook became just the 4th player in NFL history and only active player to register 40 career rushing TDs and 30 career rec. TDs. San Francisco pressured Arizona throughout the 4th qtr., making it miserable for the Cardinals offense. With the game all but over, the 49ers put the final stamp on the afternoon as the defense that held the Cardinals to just 7 points, finished off their opponent in one final play. With 4:13 left to go in the game, CB Tarell Brown put a period on the 49ers season as he picked off Cardinals QB Richard Bartel and ran it back for a 62–yd. TD. It marked Brown's 1st INT of the season and first TD of his career, securing the 49ers 38–7 victory as Arizona's final offensive effort was foiled and Smith took a kneel of the final play of the game.

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one–yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12–play, 92–yard drive that resulted in an 11–yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14–of–22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Mark Moseley connected on a 25–yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth–quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six–minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27–of–48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16
Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. QB Joe Montana completed 22–of–31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28–10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins. The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31–yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one–yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight–play, 74–yard drive to tie the score at 7–7. Washington added a 44–yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10–7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10–yard strike to complete a 10–play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21–10 thanks to an eight–yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard. It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown. CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15–13. In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6–6 tie. San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61–yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13–6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr. Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13–12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20–yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43–yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29–yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired. Montana completed 18–of–26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61–yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards. Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. Young answered back with a nine play, 93–yard drive resulting in a five–yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24–20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70–yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six–yard touchdown to secure the win. Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium
(Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7–7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38–21 win over the visiting 49ers. The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five–yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven–yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21–point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28–7 halftime lead. San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six–play, 43–yard drive with a four–yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42–yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50–yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one–yard plunge by Young, capping a 17–play, 94–yard drive. 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44–15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3–0 lead on a 29–yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13–play, 68–yard drive that ended with a two–yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30–3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37–3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single–game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38–28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park–record 69,143 (since broken). On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29–yard touchdown and a 14–0 lead. The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21–0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter. Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21–7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63–yard drive with a four–yard run that narrowed the gap to 24–14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28–yard score, giving the 49ers a 31–14 lead heading into the locker room. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13–of–29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two–yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12–play, 74–yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12–play, 63–yard drive capped by a 24–yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30–yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20–yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12–yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. Alstott added another two–yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19–yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams. LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game–high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow. LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player–of–the–Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight–yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five–yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41–yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33–yard game–winning field goal.

Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one–yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17–play, 44–yard drive that resulted in a 47–yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53–yard, 13–play drive, which led to a 24–yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10–3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39–yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37–yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27–yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six–yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27–yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27–yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight–yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five–and–out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five–yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22–yard game–winning field goal.

San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late–season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two–yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73–yard drive with a one–yard plunge into the end zone for the 7–7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three–yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17–14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29–yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six–yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23–yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23–yard game–winning field goal and the 20–17 victory.

Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill–timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34–yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10–0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13–yard touchdown to push the lead to 17–3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight–play, 64–yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21–point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three–yard touchdown that brought the score to 24–10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60–yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38–yard line. Capping off a punishing 38–yard, nine–play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38–yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31–24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32–yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one–yard keeper that closed the gap to 34–31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29–yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20–yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38–yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10–yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28–yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37–34 win.

Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30–yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3–0 lead. They took a 6–0 lead on another Jacke 25–yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six–play, 36–yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48–yard field goal. After a three–and–out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven–yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10–6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17–6 at the half with a 13–yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17–14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59–yard touchdown and followed it with a two–point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35–yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three–and–out. Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid–season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28–yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10–0 on a 29–yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72–yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three–yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10–7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26–yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine–play, 68–yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27–yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15–yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six–yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6–0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia–to–Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine–yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23–yard line, but on fourth–and–10, Janikowski missed a 41–yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29–yard line. On fourth–and–one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25–yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game–winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11–yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game–winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25–22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see–saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24–yard pass, but the two–point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19–14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22–14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34–yard line and began the two–minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven–yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22–20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two–point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26–yard line. Garcia completed three–of–four passes for 27 yards, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine–yard line. In an early–season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24–17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game–tying 13–yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29–yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48–yard line. After a one–yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were pe–nalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1–of–2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3–of–6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13–6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one–yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Fran–cisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16–yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game–winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32–yard line. With five seconds remain–ing in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game–winning 50–yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22–yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game–winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victo–ries in a 31–28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly di–rected two late fourth–quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer pen–alty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Pe–terson banged home the game–winning 32–yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER–HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favor–ite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career–high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six–yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two–point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28–yard line, Rattay started off with a nine–yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14–yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two–point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Dar–nell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scor–ing position where Peterson knocked home the game–winner.

First–year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball af–ter an inspiring 139–yard performance on 34 attempts. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17–yard gain that set–up K Todd Peterson's game–winning field goal. Fac–ing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30–yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19–yard catch to keep the 49ers game–winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game–winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third–and–13 situation with a 14–yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14–yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14–play, 56–yard drive that ended with a 42–yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come–from–behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28–yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal–line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first–and–goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first–and–goal inside the five–yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46–yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12–play, 76–yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32–yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine–yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game–winning drive at their own 39–yard line. San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight–game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta–Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32–yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine–yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14–yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59–yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three–yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100–yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35–yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one–yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19–yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62–yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game–saving tackle at the 14–yard line. That set up Rackers game–winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41–yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37–yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55–yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48–yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57–yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two–yard touchdown on a fourth–down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35–yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Arizona 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14–point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40–yard game–winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41–yard line to help set up the go–ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back–to–back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22–yard line to help get into position for a two–yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15–play, 74–yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12–yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49–yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23–yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game–winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41–yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33–yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third–and–seven and a five–yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third–and–two situation to push the 49ers to the 23–yard line where Nedney connected on a 40–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300–yard game, finishing 20–of–32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100–yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63–yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three–yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10–yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

San Francisco 23, Arizona 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back–to–back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense. All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29–yd. game win–ning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42–yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an ex–tra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers to–taled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32–yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65–yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1–yd. line, set–ting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26–yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5–yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13–yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47–yd. line. Smith then connected on back–to–back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16–yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33–yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game win–ning FG.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Tony Morabito's widow, Josephine (left), and Victor Morabito's widow, Jane (right), kept control of the 49ers after their husbands' passing along with team president Lou Spadia (middle).

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS LIMITED PARTNER
THE MIEULI TRUST

Franklin Mieuli's longtime interest and love for sports sparked his future involvement in the professional sports teams that brought him five Super Bowl championship rings as a limited partner with the 49ers and one NBA World Championship as the owner of the Golden State Warriors.

In 1949, he accepted a position in the advertising department of the San Fran–cisco Brewing Company, makers of Burgermeister beer. "Burgie" sponsored broadcasts of 49ers football games and in 1954, Mieuli produced the team's first telecast. Through his business relationship and friendship with Tony and Vic Morabito, the original owners of the 49ers, Franklin was offered the op–portunity to purchase a share of the club, and today still holds stake in the 49ers franchise.

When the New York Giants moved west in 1958, Horace Stoneham offered Mieuli stock in the San Francisco Giants. In 1962, Franklin and a group of his friends also purchased the Philadelphia Warriors and the San Francisco Warriors were born. He became the only sportsman to have ownerships in three major league sports teams in the same area.

In the 25 years after he acquired majority ownership, the San Francisco and now Golden State Warriors were in the playoffs ten times, won four division titles and a World Championship in 1974–75. Mieuli is the first professional sports team owner to have named an African American as his head coach, Alvin Attles, a member of the team that moved west from Philadelphia. His longtime friend has served with the Warriors as a player, head coach, administrator, vice president and assistant general manager and in his 48th year with the club, is now a Warriors' ambassador.

Simultaneously, as president of Franklin Mieuli and Associates Radio and TV Production Co., he acquired radio and TV production rights to the Giants, 49ers and Warriors' games and engineered games for the A's and Raiders' broadcasts. He produced and handled the radio coverage for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley with Lon Simmons, Russ Hodges, Gordy Soltau and Marty Martin as his broadcasting crew. Today, his company, managed by long–time employee Shirley Figgins Mortensen, continues to provide the radio engineering for 25 sports teams, including baseball, football, hockey and basketball, throughout the U.S. and Canada. He also owned radio stations, KPUP, (KHIP and KMPX) in San Francisco and was an owner of KTMX in Colusa, CA.

Mieuli received a degree in advertising from the University of Oregon and served a stint in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mieuli passed away from natural causes at the age of 89 on April 24, 2010.

Mieuli and his former wife, Hilles Parish Cribari, are the parents of three children, seven grandchildren and five great–grandchildren. Ms. Blake Green, Mieuli's loving companion for the past 30 years, was formerly a feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle and Newsday in New York.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers are arguably one of the most fabled sports franchises in history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

During Alumni Weekend on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers honored the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

Members of the 49ers Hall of Fame were recognized at Candlestick Park, in a special display highlighted by plaques designed in each inductee's likeness.

In years to come, the 49ers organization will look to enshrine at least two members each season. A selection committee comprised of internal and external members will present ownership with an annual list of candidates. Once that list has been approved, the 49ers are welcoming their Faithful to help select each year's induction class via the team's official website, www.49ers.com.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1949

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid–season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid–season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 – A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near–unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early–season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third–straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine–game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team–record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11–year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two–time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid–season four–game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single–season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two–time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16–year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly–acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst–ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three–game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three–game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28–point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Champion– ship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike–shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57–day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All–Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second–team All–Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300–yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all–time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team–record 126 points, including a perfect 51–of–51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All–Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

1984

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team–record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league–low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first–year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All–Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team–record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal–caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league–leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win–loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine–year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10–yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four–game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single–season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record–tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana–to–Rice battery hooked–up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail–biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team–record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10–point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first–year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single–season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72–yard first quarter catch–and–run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second–quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles). San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

1991

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982. The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title. When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week. WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year. On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed. Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989. Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts. RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy. The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first–round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass–rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40–8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14–0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27–21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13–3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16–game regular season, the 49ers scored a team–record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth–highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61. QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP. Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10–1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all–time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66–13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL–high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team–leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team–record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single–game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single–season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season. Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four–year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100–catch seasons after making a league–high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12–year veteran earned his NFL record–tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first–team All–Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season. Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first–team All–Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third–year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all–time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11–game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new–found running attack and the league's top–ranked defense. Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL–AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11–game streak (games 2–12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10–or–more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record–tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13–year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non–kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14–yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest. The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple–threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12–4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14–year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322–of–517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100–point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record–setting season. Hearst, and his team–record and career–high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198–yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team–record and was a personal–best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection. The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team–high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career–best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns. The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season–ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4–12 record. A season–ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24–22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career–high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121–of–182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team–record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off–season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career–high 1,229 yards, caught a career–high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second–year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career–high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991–92. The 49ers also led the league with a per–rush average of 5.0 yards. The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100–yard games, including a six–reception, 143–yard effort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five–reception, 130–yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game–winning 64–yard return against New Orleans (9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full–time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career–highs in every category, completing 355–of–561 passes for a team–record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300–yard passing games, including a 402–yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300–yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player. WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000–yard season, catching a career–high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100–yard games and scored a team–high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50–year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back–to–back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career–highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns. The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20–percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two–year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all–star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16–year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001. The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third–year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career–high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000–yard rusher, which set a new team record. The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team–record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career–highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career–high and team record 97–yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career–high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth–quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career–high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid. Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career–high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career–high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000–yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000–yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year. The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

2004

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16–game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best–ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–record 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game. DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi–sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career–high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third–longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100–tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season–ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second–year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second–year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career–high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6–yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81–yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth–longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

2005

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail–biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston. The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL–record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league–high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson). On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket. WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center. Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each. The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

2006

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith. The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters. Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona. The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler. The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season. Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17–of–19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all–time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all–time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season. After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense. Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team–highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358). On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team–high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles. As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span. For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career–high and team–record 47.8 gross average.

2009

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career–high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go–ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game. With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action–packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002. Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career–high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career–highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single–season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury. Behind the crafty play–calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime–time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory–sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat. The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career–high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th–best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard–beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6. San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non–losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73–yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record–tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100–yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 season with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss. The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them,16–14. San Francisco returned home for its 2nd primetime matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sunday Night Football pitted them against the Philadelphia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the visiting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9. The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late–game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game–winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week–long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big–play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game. The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, inspired the squad for a prime–time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a fractured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season–high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thurday night matchup. Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.
